Lim, 2020-12-14 This book aims to capture the complicated development of Korea from monoethnic to multicultural society challenging the narrative of ethnonational continuity in Korea through a discursive institutional approach At a time when immigration is changing the face of South Korea and an increasingly diverse society becomes empirical fact this doesn t necessarily mean that multiculturalism has been embraced as a normative policy based response to that fact The approach here diverges from existing academic analyses which tend to conclude that core institutions defining Korea's immigration and nationality regimes nd which crucially also reflect a basic and hitherto unyielding commitment to racial and ethnic homogeneity ill remain largely unaffected by increasing diversity Here this title underscores the critical importance of discursive agency as a necessary corrective to still dominant power and interestbased arguments In addition discursive agents are found to play a central role in communicating promoting and helping to instill the ideas that create a basis for change on the road to remaking Korean society The Road to Multiculturalism in South Korea will be of interest to students and scholars of Asian studies immigration and migration studies race and ethnic studies as well as comparative politics broadly Searching Frances Gateward, 2012-02-01 Seoul Searching is a collection of fourteen provocative essays about contemporary South Korean cinema the most productive and dynamic cinema in Asia Examining the three dominant genres that have led Korean film to international acclaim melodramas big budget action blockbusters and youth films the contributors look at Korean cinema as industry art form and cultural product and engage cinema s role in the formation of Korean identities Committed to approaching Korean cinema within its cultural contexts the contributors analyze feature length films and documentaries as well as industry structures and governmental policies in relation to transnational reception marketing modes of production aesthetics and other forms of popular culture An interdisciplinary text Seoul Searching provides an original contribution to film studies and expands the developing area of Korean studies Religion and Spirituality in Korean America David K.
