Savannah Trover expected to wake up from surgery missing her former heart not her former faith Now her anger toward God threatens to destroy her family and ministry Can she ever trust her heart again Commemorative Biographical Record, Harrison, Ohio ,1891 Memory T Cells Maurizio Zanetti,Stephen P. Schoenberger,2011-01-11 Immunological memory has fascinated microbiologists and immunologists for decades as one of the new frontiers to conquer to better understand the response to pathogens cancer and vaccination Over the past decade attention has turned to the intrinsic properties of the memory T cells themselves as it has become clear that the eradication of both infected cells and tumors requires T cells This book is an attempt to capture the wave of discoveries associated with these recent studies Its chapters represent a wide collection of topics related to memory T cells by laboratories that have invested their skills and knowledge to understand the biology and the principles upon which memory T cells are generated maintained and expanded upon re encounter with antigen Ultimately these studies are all aimed at a better understanding of the function of memory T cells in protection against disease Hoarding Memory Amy L. Hubbell,2020-12 Hoarding Memory looks at the ways the stories of the Algerian War 1954-62 have proliferated among the former French citizens of Algeria By engaging hoarding as a model Amy L. Hubbell demonstrates the simultaneously productive and destructive nature of clinging to memory These memories present massive amounts of material akin to the stored objects in a hoarder's house Through analysis of fiction autobiography art and history that extensively use collecting layering and repetition to address painful war memories Hubbell shows trauma can be hidden within its own representation Hoarding Memory dedicates chapters to specific authors and artists who use this hoarding technique Marie Cardinal Leila Sebbar and Benjamin Stora in writing and Nicole Guiraud and Patrick Altes in art All were born in Algeria during colonial French rule but in vastly different contexts each suffered personal or inherited trauma from racism physical or psychological abuse terrorist or other violent acts of war and exile in France Zineb Sedira's artwork is also included as an example of traumatic memory inherited from her parents Ultimately this book shows how traumatic experience can be conveyed in a seemingly open account that is compounded and compacted by the volume of words images and other memorial debris that testify to the pain Remembering Mass Atrocities: Perspectives on Memory Struggles and Cultural Representations in Africa Mphahisi Ndlovu,Lungile Augustine Tshuma,Shepherd Mpofu,2023-12-28 This book explores how popular cultural artifacts literary texts commemorative practices and other forms of remembrances are used to convey transmit and contest memories of mass atrocities in the Global South Some of these historical atrocities took place during the Cold war As such this book unpacks the influence or role of the global powers in conflict in the Global South Contributors are grappling with a number of issues such as the politics of memorialization memory conflicts exhumations reburials historical dialogue peacebuilding and social healing memory activism visual representation transgenerational transmission of memories and identity politics The Pleasures of Memory Sarah Winter,2015-08-03 What are the sources of the commonly held presumption that reading literature should make people more just humane and sophisticated Rendering literary history responsive to the cultural histories of reading publishing and education The Pleasures of Memory illuminates the ways in which Dickens's serial fiction shaped not only the popular practice of reading for pleasure and instruction but also the school subject we now know as English Winter shows how Dickens's serial fiction instigated specific reading practices by reworking the conventions of religious didactic tracts from which most Victorians learned to read Incorporating an influential associationist psychology of learning founded on the cumulative functioning of memory Dickens's serial novels consistently led readers to reflect on their reading as a form of shared experience Dickens's celebrity authorship Winter argues represented both a successful marketing program for popular fiction and a cultural politics addressed to a politically unaffiliated social activist Victorian readership As late nineteenth century educational reforms consolidated British and American readers into mass populations served by state school systems Dickens's beloved novels came to embody the socially inclusive and humanizing goals of democratic education

Memory Is Another Country Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen, 2009-08-25 2010 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title The act of remembering is a means of bringing the past alive and an imaginative way of dealing with loss It has been the subject of much recent scholarship and is of particular relevance at a time of widespread transnational migration This book is a valuable and original contribution to the field of diaspora studies Based on in depth oral narratives of forty Vietnamese women it deals with themes both universal and specific to this diaspora divergent memories in families the significance of homeland the return to Vietnam cross cultural relationships intergenerational tensions and the issues of silence and unspoken trauma among Vietnamese refugees It is the first study to apply memory and trauma theories to a substantial base of oral narratives by Vietnamese women in the West Nguyen argues that understanding of these narratives provides not only an insight into the way Vietnamese women have dealt with loss but also illuminates the experience of the wider Vietnamese diaspora and other refugees

Liquid Memory Jonathan Nossiter, 2010-09-28 Jonathan Nossiter acclaimed filmmaker and former sommelier had his first taste of wine at the age of three in Paris from his father's fingertip For him wine is memory in its most liquid and dynamic form as essential an expression of culture as cinema books baseball painting even sex With great wit and passion he celebrates wine and its enthusiasts and defends both from those who tell us what to drink and how to think about it In Liquid Memory the American expatriate investigates the infinite mysteries of terroir the historical sense of place that makes wine a living thrilling expression of cultural identity that can stretch back centuries The book is a deliriously joyful master class in locating the soul of a wine and in learning to trust your own palate and desires Nossiter who has already created an uproar in the world of wine with his film Mondovino arms us against the tyranny of snobs critics and charlatans who would prevent us from taking part in what should be a gloriously democratic bacchanalia From the sacred wine shops and three star restaurants of Paris to the biodynamic vineyards of Burgundy from the hipster bistros of New York to film locations in Rio de Janeiro and Athens this singular journey invites us to consider how power misused can sometimes mask an absence of taste and how our own personal taste can combat power in any sphere A controversial bestseller in Europe Liquid Memory is sure to rile the establishment enlighten the thirsty and reveal the inner life of the world's most mysterious contradictory and jubilatory drink
