Ten Years of Apparitions. New Growth and Recognition of the Pilgrimages Rene Laurentin,1991 Ten Years of Apparitions. New Growth and Recognition of the Pilgrimages. Latest News of Medjugorje Number 10 June, 1991 Rene Laurentin,1991 Ten Years of Apparitions Rene Laurentin,1991-12-01 The Credibility of Science and Religion Paul Weingartner,2025-01-27 Weingartner compares criteria and basic assumptions for the credibility of scientific and religious belief systems It is shown that mankind has access to basic knowledge about a higher spiritual power and knowledge by conscience about what is obligatory or forbidden This is defended by further axiomatizations on basic terms as natural goods natural and moral law and conscience Scientific and religious belief systems are then compared thoroughly and by logical deduction and verisimilitude One main argument is that every kind of belief system has an upper and a lower bound of credibility yet a degree of credibility that leads to the impossibility of rational justification for scientific belief systems must not be required from religious belief systems Further topics are internal and external consistency local refutation mutual complementation between religion and theory of evolution as well as a comparison of the five world religions leading to general features of religion It is shown that one main yet basic axiom of morality is the principle of charity Finally the book concludes with the credibility requirements of science towards religion and those of religion towards science

Paperbound Books in Print 1995 Reed Reference Publishing,R5ference Reed,1995-12 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 Apparition Fever Tine Van Osselaer,2025-05-13 In the early 1930s a wave of Marian apparitions cases in which visionaries reported seeing and receiving messages from the Virgin Mary swept over Belgium With over forty apparition sites and hundreds of visionaries the Belgian apparitions often attended by crowds of onlookers were unrivalled in scope and complexity and they confronted Catholics and others with a question How do you decide what you believe Apparition Fever explores the Belgian apparitions from initial reports to the eventual recognition of two episodes in the 1940s It shows how knowledge was formed at all levels among the bystanders attending the sites to the medical experts who studied the visionaries and the clerical authorities who evaluated the authenticity of the apparitions Tine Van Osselaer examines how these different perspectives converged and influenced each other whose authority was accepted or challenged and how the public character of the events affected their evaluation Apparition Fever reveals that the public setting of Marian apparitions and the religious enthusiasm they triggered are not novel challenges for the Catholic Church On the contrary they have heavily influenced the evaluation of apparitions since the early twentieth century Powers of Pilgrimage Simon Coleman,2022-01-18 Finalist Award for Excellence in the Study of Religion Analytical Descriptive Studies given by the American Academy of Religion A groundbreaking reframing of religious pilgrimage Pious processions Sites of miraculous healing Journeys to far away sacred places These are what are usually called to mind when we think of religious pilgrimage Yet while pilgrimage can include journeying to the heart of sacred shrines it can also occur in apparently mundane places Indeed not everyone has the resources or mobility to take part in religiously inspired movement to foreign lands and some find meaning in religious movement closer to home and outside of officially sanctioned practices Powers of Pilgrimage argues that we must question the universality of Western assumptions of what religion is and where it should be located including the notion that genuine pilgrimage needs to be associated with discrete formally recognized forms of religiosity This necessary volume makes the case for expanding our gaze to reconsider the salience scope and scale of contemporary forms of pilgrimage and pilgrimage related activity It shows that we need to reflect on how pilgrimage sites journeys rituals stories and metaphors are entangled with each other and with wider aspects of people s lives ranging from an action as trivial as a stroll down the street to the magnitude of forced migration to another country or continent Offering a new theoretical lexicon and framework for exploring human pilgrimage Powers of Pilgrimage presents a broad overview of how we can understand pilgrimage activity and proposes that it should be understood not solely as going to staying at and leaving a sacred place but also as occurring in ordinary times places and practices Portugal ,1996 The Index ...

Benjamin Franklin Underwood,1881 Loving Stones David L. Haberman,2020 Loving Stones is a study of devotees conceptions of and worshipful interactions with Mount Govardhan a sacred mountain located in the Braj region of north central India that has for centuries been considered an embodied form of Krishna It is often said that worship of Mount Govardhan makes the impossible possible In this book David L Haberman examines the perplexing paradox of an infinite god embodied in finite form wherein each particular form is non different from the unlimited He takes on the task of interpreting the worship of a mountain and its stones for a culture in which this practice is quite alien This challenge involves exploring the interpretive strategies that may explain what seems un understandable and calls for theoretical considerations of incongruity inconceivability and other realms of the impossible This aspect of the book includes critical consideration of the place and history of the pejorative concept of idolatry and its twin anthropomorphism in the comparative study of religions Loving Stones uses the worship of Mount Govardhan as a site to explore ways in which scholars engaged in the difficult work of representing other cultures struggle to make the impossible possible Immaculate & Powerful Clarissa W. Atkinson,Constance H. Buchanan,Margaret Ruth Miles,1985 Recoge varios articulos de distintas investigadoras feministas reunidas en la harvard divinity school que pretende ser el primero de una serie que la harvard women s studies in religion va a publicar Los articulos aqui agrupados intentan profundizar en la relacion de las mujeres con sus distintas religiones a lo largo de la historia y la vinculacion entre la iconografia religiosa los modelos culturales y las estructuras sociales The Critic ,1897 Mother Figured Deirdre de la Cruz,2015-12-30 There is no female religious figure so widely known and revered as the Virgin Mary Mary has inspired in cultures around the world a deep devotion a desire to emulate her virtue and a strong belief in her power Perhaps no population has been so deeply affected by this maternal figure as Filipino Catholics whose apparitions of Mary have increased in response to recent events drawing from a broad repertoire of the Catholic supernatural and pulling attention to new articulations of Christianity in the Global South In Mother Figured historical anthropologist Deirdre de la Cruz offers a detailed examination of several appearances and miracles of the Virgin Mary in the Philippines from materials and sites ranging from the mid nineteenth century to the present By analyzing the effects of the mass media on the perception and proliferation of apparition phenomena de la Cruz charts the intriguing emergence of new voices in the Philippines that are broadcasting Marian discourse globally Based on two years of ethnographic fieldwork and hitherto unexplored archives in the Philippines the United States and Spain Mother Figured documents the conditions of Marian devotion s modern development and tracks how it has transformed Filipinos social and political role within the greater Catholic world

Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire Janet Wootton, 2022-03-07 Women in Christianity in the Age of Empire 1800-1920 offers a broad view of the nineteenth century as a time of dramatic change particularly for women critiqued in the light of postcolonial theory This edited volume includes important contributions from academics in the field Overarching themes include the cult of domesticity the changing impact of Christianity on views of women s nature in an age of scientific thinking conflation of gospel and civilization in global mission and the exclusion of women from public spheres of life We meet powerful saints campaigners and thinkers who bring about genuine transformation in the lives of women and in society But we also recognize the long shadow of Empire in the world of the twenty first century critiquing Colonialism and Empire and views that restricted women s lives This engaging volume will be of key interest to students and scholars in Religion and Cultural Studies Exploring the complexities of the nineteenth century it draws on a range of scholarship including TV documentaries film online and more traditional academic resources
