

Для психолога как ученого-эмпирика ситуация выглядит несколько иной. Он оказывается в центре богатой и обширной земли, полной странных событий: там есть люди, убивающие самих себя; играющий ребенок; ребенок, складывающий губы, пытаюсь сказать свое первое слово; человек, который, влюбившись и оказавшись в несчастливом положении, не хочет или не может найти выход; там есть таинственное состояние, называемое гипнозом, в котором воля одного человека управляет другим человеком; там есть стремление к более высоким и более трудным целям; верность группе; мечтание; планирование; исследование мира и так далее без конца. Это громадный континент, полный очарования и силы и полный участков земли, где еще не ступала нога человека.

Психология стремится завоевать этот континент, выяснить, где спрятаны его сокровища, исследовать его опасные места, подчинить себе его многочисленные силы и использовать его энергию.

Как можно достичь этой цели? Сперва в то время, которое можно было бы назвать «спекулятивной эпохой», была сделана попытка копнуть глубоко в землю. Сообщалось, что под землей как скрытый источник энергии находится нечто странное. Ему дали название «ассоциация». Новые исследователи пробурили свои шахты в нескольких других местах. Они обнаружили нечто иное, что они называли «инстинктом». Третья группа сообщила о другой реальности — «либидо». И все утверждали, что нашли то основание, на котором покоилась земля. К этому времени психологи несколько устали от различных притязаний. Стало ясно, что континент был гораздо больше, чем предполагали сначала. Возможно, на нем было больше одного источника энергии. Весь процесс зондирования глубины стал скорее вызывать подозрения, в особенности потому, что ни один исследователь не мог поднять свой материал на поверхность для осмотра при дневном свете. Как же можно было доказать реальную связь между объектами, предположительно существующими под землей, и тем, что происходило на поверхности? Там, открытые взгляду каждого и несомненные, появлялись интересные феномены. Теперь психолог занялся экстенсивными путешествиями по поверхности континента, стараясь желая найти новые феномены, точно описать их, сосчитать и измерить, зафиксировать их изменение.

Эта процедура, однако, тоже оказалась в целом неудовлетворительной. В конце юнцов, психолог наблюдал не что иное, как людей. Детям требовались помощь и воспитание; преступникам требовалось
