Beyond the Edge Andrew Mayes,2013-11-21 Jesus calls his disciples to follow him but where does he lead us Responding to Jesus summons we find ourselves leaving familiar certainties and securities behind as we step out boldly in faith Old boundaries dissolve as we are led into liminal spaces exhilarating situations new places of discovery and radical spiritual growth In such experiences Christ reveals himself to us anew The place of risk is the threshold of the divine Beyond the Edge is for people who wish to go deeply into the spiritual life for spiritual directors and for those who walk with others on their prayer journey It can be used individually or in groups      Learning the Language of the Soul Andrew D. Mayes, 2016 How can we describe to others what is happening to us on our spiritual journey How can we depict the spiritual road that we are taking experiences of prayer transitions that we travel through impediments that we face and externalize into words the interior experiences In this spiritual lexicon Andrew Mayes explores creative and inspirational metaphors to equip anyone wanting to communicate effectively about their faith or life of prayer Learning the Language of the Soul is a handbook that will prove indispensable to spiritual directors evangelists and all sharing in the witness of the church today It will loosen our tongues as we discover images from both the classic Christian tradition and contemporary culture that help us express and develop a spiritual literacy by which we share with others the joys and struggles of the inner life      Empowered Women James W. Goll, Michal Ann Goll, 2009-09-28 Empowered Women is a devotional dedicated to the memory of Michal Ann Goll and to the honor of all women who are passionate about helping others It is a compilation of the best from three of her books in the Women on the Front Lines series A Call to Courage A Call to the Secret Place Compassion A Call to Take Action This inspiring and challenging devotional serves as a motivation for all who want to follow Michal Ann's example of positively impacting others through fighting for the rights of the disenfranchised worldwide You will enjoy not only the insights but the depth of compassion found within Empowered Women You will be lifted above the daily grind into a realm of spiritual mental and emotional peace and comfort where you can allow God to immerse you with His love and grace Michal Ann's extravagant and contagious love for others is manifested in this devotional and exemplified through the examples she chose to write about including Fanny Crosby Florence Nightingale Mother Teresa and Catherine Booth It has been my goal and desire to love the Lord with all my heart all the days of my life My desire is to leave with my family friends and ministry partners a challenge to always love and honor God with all your life I request that you not forget the poor that Jesus died for and that you carry on my ministry of Compassion Acts to the world Michal Ann Goll February 4 2008      Philosophy and Life Writing D. L. LeMahieu, Christopher Cowley, 2020-05-21 In this volume scholars from a number of academic disciplines illuminate how a range of philosophers and other thoughtful individuals addressed the complex issues surrounding philosophy and life writing The contributors interrogate the writings of Teresa of Avila Jean Jacques Rousseau John Stuart Mill Wilhelm Dilthey Walter Benjamin Albert Camus Bryan Magee Mikhail Bakhtin Maurice Merleau Ponty and Judith Butler who range in time from the sixteenth to the twenty first centuries As this volume demonstrates the relationship between philosophy and life writing has become an issue of urgent interdisciplinary concern This book was originally published as a special issue of Life Writing      Christian Spirituality Gordon Mursell, 2020-02-21 There is a growing interest today in the context and history of Christian spirituality In this book a team of expert authors from the East and West present a full and fascinating picture of humanity's desire for the divine across the centuries Highlighting the contribution of significant figures through history authors explore the ways in which Christians from the earliest times onwards have sought to express and live out the deepest truth of their faith The Bible and the life of Jesus Christ are the starting point for the story The reader is then guided through the development of spirituality starting an exploration of the significance of the early church fathers and culminating in a survey of the explosion of expressions of Christian divinity across the world in the twentieth century Interspersed with boxed features that provide more detail on key individuals and groups and timelines that put events into their chronological contexts Christian Spirituality is an ideal overview for scholars and interested readers alike

Incarnating Grace Julia Feder, 2023-11-07 Prioritizes survivors of abuse by reexamining Christian ideals about suffering and salvation More than half of women and almost one in three of men in the United States have experienced sexual violence at some time in their lives Yet our Christian tradition has failed survivors of sexual violence who have been taught to believe that traumatic suffering brings us closer to God Incarnating Grace attempts to save our broken ways of talking about God's grace by unearthing liberating resources buried in the Christian tradition Christian ideas about salvation have historically contributed to sexual violence in our communities by reinforcing the idea that suffering is salvific But a God worth worshipping does not want human beings to suffer Drawing on the sixteenth century Spanish mystic Teresa of Avila as well as contemporary political and feminist theologians philosophers and legal scholars author and Associate Professor of theology Julia Feder offers an account of Christian salvation as mystical political Feder begins by describing the breadth of traumatic wounding and the shape of traumatic recovery as articulated by psychologists Since the fullness of post traumatic healing requires reserves deeper than those which can be articulated by the secular field of psychology alone the book then introduces the Spanish Carmelite Saint Teresa of Avila and her theological insights which are most helpful for constructing a post traumatic theology of healing Arguing that God stands against violence and suffering the book also examines the notion of senseless suffering a technical term that comes from Edward Schillebeeckx a Catholic twentieth century Flemish priest and theologian The suffering of sexual violence serves no higher purpose or greater human value and pushes against all ways of making sense of the world as good and orderly In the following chapters Feder turns to two Christian virtues that animate post traumatic recovery courage and hope and explores how Christian hope can provide a language to empower courageous activity undertaken toward healing Incarnating Grace opens a new dialogue about salvation and violence that does not allow evil to have the last word Autobiography and Other Writings Ana de San Bartolomé, 2008-11-15 Ana de San Bartolomé 1549-1626 a contemporary and close associate of St Teresa of Avila typifies the curious blend of religious activism and spiritual forcefulness that characterized the first generation of Discalced or reformed Carmelites Known for their austerity and ethics their convents quickly spread throughout Spain and under Ana's guidance also to France and the Low Countries Constantly embroiled in disputes with her male superiors Ana quickly became the most vocal and visible of these mystical women and the most fearless of the guardians of the Carmelite Constitution especially after Teresa's death Her autobiography clearly inseparable from her religious vocation expresses the tensions and conflicts that often accompanied the lives of women whose relationship to the divine endowed them with an authority at odds with the temporary powers of church and state Last translated into English in 1916 Ana's writings give modern readers fascinating insights into the nature of monastic life during the highly charged religious and political climate of late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Spain

Teresa of Avila Shirley Du Boulay, 2004 This biography captures the combination of down to earth humanity and profound enriching spirituality that is Teresa of Avila's hallmark This balanced portrait of an irreverent intense and fiery Renaissance woman and her times includes moving excerpts from her letters and sublime spiritual writings Her unconventional progressive views on prayer and worship her outstanding administrative and literary talents her travels around Spain to found and supervise convents and how she spent much of her life under the scrutiny of the Inquisition are all detailed For readers of any faith or none this book brings to life an extraordinarily ordinary lovable and inspiring individual From publisher description

A New Companion to Hispanic Mysticism, 2010-06-15 Winner of the 2011 SCSC Bainton Prize for Reference Works The canon of Hispanic mysticism is expanding No longer is our picture of this special brand of early modern devotional practice limited to a handful of venerable saints Instead we recognize a wide range of marginal figures as practitioners of mysticism broadly defined Neither do we limit the study of mysticism necessarily to the Christian religion nor even to the realm of literature Representations of mysticism are also found in the visual plastic and musical arts The terminology and theoretical framework of mysticism permeate early modern Hispanic cultures Paradoxically by taking a more inclusive approach to studying mysticism in its marginal manifestations we draw mysticism in all its complex iterations back toward its rightful place at the center of early modern spiritual experience Contributors Colin Thompson Alastair Hamilton Christina Lee Clara E Herrera Darcy Donahue Elena del R o Parra Evelyn Toft Fernando Dur n L pez Francisco Morales Freddy Dom nguez Glyn Redworth Jane Ackerman Jessica Boon Jos Adriano de Freitas Carvalho Luce L pez Baralt Mar a Carri n Maryrica Lottman and Tess Knighton
