the tide swept in Music wafted from several bars and small knots of tourists some with fringe ringed straw hats from Luau Larry s meandered here and there along the boardwalk These holiday weekenders were determined to party hearty Lover s Cove was empty except for fish several of whom scooted under the boat attracted by Bruce s portable light casting long beams around the Cove No dinghy No Daisy No sons Leaving the Cove they headed further south along the coast line The lights of the town disappeared behind them The water and the night here were both black Punctuated only by the rays from the moon and the white wake they left behind The wake rapidly folded back into the black without a trace There was a light breeze sweeping in from across the channel It chilled the Judge It was that kind of night They skimmed the water about 40 feet off Pebbly Beach just outside the line of small soft breakers Bruce shining his light alternately along the rocky be
