Emperor Qin's Terra Cotta Army Michael Capek,2008-01-01 A dead emperor guarded by his army for 2 000 years One day in 1974 a group of farmers in rural China found a life size clay statue of a man s head buried deep in a field When government archaeologists inspected the area they discovered that beneath the ground were more than eight thousand life size clay soldiers each one with a unique face In nearby chambers they unearthed clay horses carefully preserved swords bronze statues and other astonishing things Where did these treasures come from And why were they buried Slowly the story revealed itself It centered around Qin Shi Huangdi the first emperor of China who died in 210 B C For forty years leading up to his death thousands of artists from across China had sculpted an enormous city where he would be buried guarded and protected by thousands of clay soldiers This city remained hidden for over two thousand years This important archaeological find offers amazing insight into the civilization of ancient China The Subterranean Army of Emperor Qin Shi Huang Guo Youmin,2005 When society has already entered an age of high tech and computers an army of powerful imperial soldiers clad in armour and wielding threatening weapons suddenly looms out of the fog of time As mysterious as extraterrestrial beings the terracotta soldiers are at the same time life like They emerge out of the earth under which they have remained buried and unknown for more than 2 200 years Was it because they could no longer bear the darkness and loneliness underground or because they wanted to reveal their ancient long forgotten glory Or was it because Emperor Qin Shi Huang had always intended to demonstrate to later generations his absolute imperial power For whatever reason the reappearance of his legions has given the impression that this is a story we may never fully comprehend The Terra Cotta Army John Man,2008-04-22 The incredible story of the discovery of China s greatest archaeological treasure and the history behind the mysterious terra cotta warriors and the emperor who made them Secrets of the Terracotta Army Michael Capek,2014-07-01 Describes the archeological wonders of the Terracotta Army including discovery artifacts ancient peoples and preservation Terra-Cotta Army, The Emily Rose Oachs,2019-08-01 China s famous terra cotta army has at least 8 000 soldiers More than 2 000 years ago this army was created to protect the tomb of the ancient Chinese emperor Qin Shihuang Today the army has immense value to archaeologists and historians around the world This high interest text uses maps graphs profiles of recent discoveries and other features to introduce readers to the army s thrilling history The Underground Terracotta Army of Emperor Qin Shi Huang Fu Tianchou,Sidney Shapiro,1987 The Qin Terracotta Army Wenli Zhang,1996 A fascinating study of this amazing archaeological discovery Terra Cotta Warriors Jane Portal,2008 The terra cotta army of Qin Shihuangdi the First Emperor of China r 221 210 BC is one of the most spectacular finds in world archaeology It was discovered by chance in 1974 a garrison in battle ready formation spread across a number of pits Here were life sized warriors made over two thousand years ago from fired clay cavalry archers and infantry lowly foot soldiers and high ranking officers figures of varying ages with different hairstyles and facial expressions and seemingly representing every racial group in China more than 6 000 in all But who was this powerful Emperor of the Qin Dynasty who needed such an army to guard him in the afterlife How were the figures made How could they have been manufactured on such a vast scale Beautifully illustrated and based on the latest research this little book provides a perfect introduction to what has often been described as the eighth Wonder of the World BOOK JACKET Die Terrakottaarmee des ersten chinesischen Kaisers Qin Shihuang Catharina Blänsdorf, Erwin Emmerling, 2001      The Terracotta Army Charles River Editors, 2017-01-11 Includes pictures Includes ancient accounts of the emperor's reign and description of his tomb Describes how the Terracotta Army was designed and created Includes a bibliography for further reading The terracotta army was a one off creation original in both concept and execution unmentioned in any source no sooner buried than destroyed and forgotten Why so realistic Why this many Why full size Why clay The initial inspiration was the need to duplicate a new force of which the main element was infantry conscripted from the emperor's newly acquired masses of peasants and protected not with custom made armor but with scales of leather and simple standardized weapons It was the combination of archers infantry and charioteers this particular balance between officers and men that had enabled the First Emperor to unify the nation John Man The Terracotta Army China's First Emperor and the Birth of a Nation China has always fascinated outsiders much in the same way that distant light fascinates someone looking down a dark road It is both familiar and mysterious ancient and new and fully understanding it seems to always remain just out of reach From the Great Wall to the ancient teachings of Confucius China's natural and man made wonders have been topics of interest among Westerners since the Middle Ages and the pursuit of trade routes both by land and sea amazing Marco Polo and 19th century British expeditions in similar ways despite the passage of several centuries between them For these reasons it comes as little surprise that people across the world were excited when it was revealed in 1974 that archaeologists had uncovered a new and amazing find an underground army consisting of thousands of clay soldiers still standing at their posts despite being over 2 000 years old In addition to the remarkable feats of craftsmanship and the almost unimaginable size and scale of the Terracotta Army the sculpted statues seemed to bear testimony of something that modern people could not quite wrap their minds around representing a time when China was born almost 200 years before Christ The hope for many was that this remarkable army could reveal the secrets of China's first emperor Qin Shi Huang a man who united seven warring tribes into one of the most powerful nations on earth Even as research continues 40 years after the initial find some of the facts about the Terracotta Army are staggering It's estimated that the army consists of 8 000 soldiers 130 chariots and hundreds of horses and cavalry all of which were sculpted on a mass scale by various factories but were subsequently molded to feature their own unique appearances separate of one another As if that wasn't enough there are also terracotta sculptures of acrobats servants and musicians and the sculptures were painted though most of the paint has faded away over time This impressive horde of funerary art was buried with Qin Shi Huang to serve him in the afterlife much the same way Egyptian pyramids were constructed for pharaohs While the sculptures comprising the Terracotta Army are impressive as a work of art they have indeed proven to be an invaluable historical source as well Thanks to collections of weapons buried with the sculptures as well as the shapes and sizes of the various military equipment historians can get a sense of what Qin Shi Huang had at his disposal when he fought battles and the Terracotta Army itself is even organized based on military rank allowing historians a chance to understand ancient Chinese military formations
