Self-Reflexive Portrait of the Little Flower of Jesus Fr. Emmanuel Javert Nnadozie OCD, 2024-09-19 This book focuses particularly on the self reflexive elements of the divine and human transformation in the Christian life which we find in St Therese especially her ability to wonder and question herself about the mysteries of God as they relate to her spiritual life and growth It studies Therese s spirit of critical listening and profound spiritual reflection on the things of her experience and explores her self reflective and interrogative self understanding of her call to sanctity of life The author also discusses how the Saint appropriated God s Word and God s grace hidden in the events of her life The book shows how through self reflexivity and meditation on God s Word she discovered her vocation as love in the heart of the Church following which she desired to sing of the mercies of the Lord with her whole life by loving God and neighbor in ordinary things in an extraordinary way and by leading a legion of souls through this Little Way of love which has a general or universal application to all who desire to attain perfection by a straight and short route While it is recognized that God s grace works in individuals according to their personal vocations the author believes that spiritual self reflexivity helps the faithful to integrate meaningfully like St Therese the general principles of the spiritual life and the example of the Saints into each individual s spiritual life in the events of daily life irrespective of their individual vocations And this is why the Little Way as a spiritual path can be lived by all who commit themselves to following the example found in St Therese s simple humble and confident way of spiritual childhood and of loving God and neighbor in the ordinary life and events of every day with reflexivity in love as the key Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal , 1911 "The Space of Words" Jennifer Miller Hoyer, 2014 Nelly Sachs 1891 1970 has long been regarded as one of the most significant Holocaust poets Her conception of language and words as a landscape has been understood by scholars and critics as an exilic ersatz Heimat for the lost German homeland of a displaced poet This reading however is based entirely on her postwar poems Such an isolated approach to her complex body of work is increasingly historically problematic it is also at odds with Sachs s generally cyclical poetic process In The Space of Words Jennifer Hoyer offers the first sustained critical analysis of Sachs s largely unanalyzed prewar poetry and prose as well as the first analysis that examines structural and thematic ties between the prewar works and the Nobel Prize winning postwar poetry Through close readings of both Sachs s prewar and postwar works Hoyer reveals a diasporic rather than exilic conception of the landscape of language a position of constant wandering rather than static longing for return This diasporic poetics promotes the intellectual and linguistic power of the wanderer and opens new insights into Sachs s essential significance as a Holocaust poet and a twentieth century German Jewish writer wary of the link of literary language to geopolitics and the narrative of nations Jennifer M Hoyer is Assistant Professor of German at the University of Arkansas

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1913 The Ladies' Repository ,1850
The idea of this women s magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey s Lady s Book and Snowden s Lady s Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900 Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art ,1909 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 The Bookseller ,1912
