The Forging Of A Rebellion:

The Story of the Upper Canadian Rebellion John Charles Dent, 1885 Revolution and Rebellion in the Early Modern World Jack A. Goldstone, 1991-04-02 What can the great crises of the past teach us about contemporary revolutions Arguing from an exciting and original perspective Goldstone suggests that great revolutions were the product of ecological crises that occurred when inflexible political economic and social institutions were overwhelmed by the cumulative pressure of population growth on limited available resources Moreover he contends that the causes of the great revolutions of Europe the English and French revolutions were similar to those of the great rebellions of Asia which shattered dynasties in Ottoman Turkey China and Japan The author observes that revolutions and rebellions have more often produced a crushing state orthodoxy than liberal institutions leading to the conclusion that perhaps it is vain to expect revolution to bring democracy and economic progress Instead contends Goldstone the path to these goals must begin with respect for individual liberty rather than authoritarian movements of national liberation Arguing that the threat of revolution is still with us Goldstone urges us to heed the lessons of the past He sees in the United States a repetition of the behavior patterns that have led to internal decay and international decline in the past a situation calling for new leadership and careful attention to the balance between our consumption and our resources Meticulously researched forcefully argued and strikingly original Revolutions and Rebellions in the Early Modern World is a tour de force by a brilliant young scholar It is a book that will surely engender much discussion and debate Memories of Revolt Ted Swedenburg, 2003-07-01 This wonderful monograph treats a subject that resonates with anyone who studies the Palestinian Israeli conflict and particularly Palestinian nationalism that how Palestinian history is remembered and constructed is as meaningful to our understanding of the current struggle as arriving as some sort of complete empirical understanding of its history Swedenburg studies how a major anti colonial insurrection the 1936 38 strike and revolt in Palestine against the British is remembered in Palestinian nationalist historiography western and Israeli official historical discourse and Palestinian popular memory Using primarily oral history interviews supplemented by archival material and national monuments he presents multiple complex contradictory and alternative interpretations of historical events The book is thematically divided into explorations of Palestinian nationalist symbols stereotypes and myths Israeli national monuments that simultaneously act as historical injunctions against forgetting Jewish history and efforts to marginalize vilify and obliterate the Arab history of Palestine Palestine subaltern memories as resistance to official narratives including unpopular and controversial recollections of collaboration and assassination and finally how the recodification and revival of memories of the revolt informed the Palestinian intifada that erupted in 1987 MESA Bulletin The Other Rebellion Eric Van Young, 2002-04-01 Mexico's movement toward independence from Spain was a key episode in the dissolution of the great Spanish Empire and its accompanying armed conflict arguably the first great war of decolonization in the nineteenth century This book argues that in addition to being a war of national liberation the struggle was also an internal war pitting classes and ethnic groups against each other an intensely localized struggle by rural people especially Indians for the preservation of their communities While local and national elites focused their energies on wresting power from colonial authorities and building a new nation state rural people were often much more concerned about keeping village identities and lifeways intact against the forces of state expansion commercialization and modernization Conventional wisdom says that Mexican independence was achieved through a cross class and cross ethnic alliance between creole ideologues military leaders and a mass following This book shows that this is not only an incomplete explanation of what went on in Mexico during the decade of armed confrontation that led to Mexico s independence but also a distortion of Mexican social and cultural history The author delves deeply into life histories previously unexamined texts statistical social profiling and local historical ethnography to examine the dynamics of popular rebellion He focuses especially on Mexico s Indian villages but also considers the role of parish priests as insurgent leaders local conflicts over land politics and religious symbols the influence of messianism and millenarianism in popular insurgent ideology and the everyday language of political upheaval

An Unholy Rebellion, Killing the Gods Sharonah Esther Fredrick, 2024-08-20 This groundbreaking work in literature cultural studies and history compares the two greatest epics of the Indigenous peoples of Latin America the Popul Vuh of the Quich Maya of Guatemala and the Huarochiri Manuscript of Peru s lower Andean regions

Resistance, Rebellion, and Consciousness in the Andean Peasant World, 18th to 20th Centuries Steve J. Stern, 1987 The contributors historians and anthropologists from a number of countries move beyond the traditional structural analysis of society to a finer understanding of people as actors Native Andean initiatives and consciousness are clearly placed at the center of this inquiry which merges the best methods of history an anthropology Stern begins with a vigorously argued theoretical essay in which he identifies major findings and arguments running throughout the book demonstrates their pertinence to the more general field of peasant studies and draws out the implications for theory and method He reappraises the role of peasant consciousness and political horizons and the significance of ethnic factors in explaining peasant consciousness and revolt The case studies themselves revamp the history of Andean peasant rebellion and consciousness in Peru and Bolivia This is accomplished by studying violent uprisings as transitional moments within a long term trajectory embracing varied forms of resistance and by scrutinizing closely the ideological and cultural aspects of domination political legitimacy and rebellion The results sharply alter our understanding of three major historical problems the crisis of Spanish colonial rule and the outbreak of native Andean insurrection in the eighteenth century the response to peasants to creole wars and nation building efforts in the nineteenth century and the political strategies and dilemmas of Andean peasants in the context of populist and radical politics in the twentieth century

Settler Memory Kevin Bruyneel, 2021-10-20 Faint traces of Indigenous people and their histories abound in American media memory and myths Indigeneity often remains absent or invisible however especially in contemporary political and intellectual discourse about white supremacy anti Blackness and racism in general In this ambitious new book Kevin Bruyneel confronts the chronic displacement of Indigeneity in the politics and discourse around race in American political theory and culture arguing that the ongoing influence of settler colonialism has undermined efforts to understand Indigenous politics while also hindering conversation around race itself By reexamining major episodes texts writers and memories of the political past from the seventeenth century to the present Bruyneel reveals the power of settler memory at work in the persistent disavowal of Indigeneity He also shows how Indigenous and Black intellectuals have understood ties between racism and white settler memory even as the settler dimensions of whiteness are frequently erased in our discourse about race whether in conflicts over Indian mascots or the white nationalist underpinnings of Trumpism Envisioning a new political future Bruyneel challenges readers to refuse settler memory and consider a third reconstruction that can meaningfully link antiracism and anticolonialism

Kristeva's Fiction Benigno Trigo, 2013-09-17 With published work spanning more than forty years Julia Kristeva's influence in psychoanalysis and literary theory is difficult to overstate In addition to this scholarship Kristeva has written several novels however this portion of her oeuvre has received comparatively scant attention In this book Kristeva scholars from a number of disciplines analyze her novels in relation to her work in psychoanalysis interrogating the relationships between fiction and theory The essays explore questions including what is the value of experimental writing that escapes easy definition and classification putting ideas at the same level as character pacing plot suspense form and style And how might such fiction help its readers overcome the psychological maladies that affect contemporary society The contributors make a compelling case for understanding Kristeva's fiction as a crucial influence to her wider psychoanalytic project

Celluloid Revolt Christina Gerhardt, Marco Abel, 2019 Provides new insights into German language cinema around 1968 and its relationship to the period's epoch making cultural and political happenings The epoch making revolutionary period universally known in Germany as 68 can be argued to have predated that year and to have extended well into the 1970s It continues to affect German and Austrian society and culture to this day Yet while scholars have written extensively about 1968 and the cinema of other countries relatively little sustained scholarly attention has thus far been paid to 1968 and West German East German and Austrian cinemas Now five decades later Celluloid Revolt sets out to redress that situation generating new insights into what constituted German language cinema around 1968 and beyond Contributors engage a range of cinemas spanning experimental and avant garde cinema installations and exhibits short films animated films and crime films collectively produced cinemas feminist films and Arbeiterfilme workers films as well as their relationship to cinemas of other countries such as French cinema and US direct cinema Contributors Marco Abel Tilman Baumgärtel Madeleine Bernstorff Timothy Scott Brown Michael Dobstadt Sean Eedy Thomas Elsaesser Ian Fleishman Christina Gerhardt Lisa Haegeler Randall Halle Priscilla Layne Ervin Malakaj Kalani Michell Evelyn Preuss Patricia Anne Simpson Fabian Tietke Andrew Stefan Weiner Christina Gerhardt is Associate Professor of German and Film Studies at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa Marco Abel is Professor of English and Film Studies at the
