Using Literature

for Language Learning Diego Sirico,2021-06-17 For language teachers the daunting task of teaching languages both native and foreign in ways that will engage and motivate their students is a daily struggle This volume offers an innovative approach to achieving these goals through guided readings of selected literary texts In addition to presenting empirical research into the use of poetry prose and theatre for language learning it provides useful practical tools such as sample lesson plans This promising approach can be adapted to a variety of language learning contexts and can help students develop and enhance linguistic cultural and motivational competences The book will be of compelling interest to teachers of all languages as well as researchers in the fields of education and language studies
