government of Afghanistan , Investigating Corruption in the Afghan Police Force Danny Singh,2020-08-05 Based on unprecedented empirical research conducted with lower levels of the Afghan police this unique study assesses how institutional legacy and external intervention from countries including the UK and the US have shaped the structural conditions of corruption in the police force and the state Taking a social constructivist approach the book combines an in depth analysis of internal political cultural and economic drivers with references to several regime changes affecting policing and security from the Soviet occupation and Mujahidin militias to Taliban religious police Crossing disciplinary boundaries Singh offers an invaluable contribution to the literature and to anti corruption policy in developing and conflict affected societies

Repression, Resistance, and Women in Afghanistan Hafizullah Emadi,2002-08-30 Afghan women have faced an exhaustive struggle in the battle to change their status and improve their situation Emadi takes a long look at the role of development and modernization policies implemented by the state in the pre and post Soviet eras under the Taliban and beyond He finds that such policies have failed to bring about much needed change and improvement for women Modernization strategies benefited only a small segment of urban women and left the plight of rural women unchanged Although a small segment of middle and upper class women organized themselves and fought to bring about changes in their status and to end gender inequality their efforts alone did not meet with much success Islamic orthodoxy and orthopraxy in the Taliban era restricted women s freedom of movement access to education and medical care Using personal accounts not readily available to researchers or scholars Emadi explores the diverse factors that contributed to women s oppression both at home and in society This study provides a detailed analysis of state policies toward women s emancipation within the context of a traditional Islamic society It chronicles the course of the women s movement and women s organizations still active in the political arena and puts forth an alternative plan to involve women in the reconstruction process in both urban and rural areas

Afghanistan, the Forgotten War Patricia Gossman,1991 Human Rights Watch World Report 1992 Human Rights Watch,1991 Inside Afghanistan Timor Sharan,2022-09-28 This book maps out how political networks and centres of power engaged in patronage corruption and illegality effectively constituted the Afghan state often with the complicity of the

U S led military intervention and the internationally directed statebuilding project It argues that politics and statehood in Afghanistan in particular in the last two decades including the ultimate collapse of the government in August 2021 are best understood in terms of the dynamics of internal political networks through which warlords and patronage networks came to capture and control key sectors within the state and economy including mining banking and illicit drugs as well as elections and political processes Networked politics emerged as the dominant mode of governance that further transformed and consolidated Afghanistan into a networked state with the state institutions and structures functioning as the principal marketplace for political networks bargains and rent seeking The facade of state survival and fragmented political order was a performative act and the book contends sustained through massive international military spending and development aid obscuring the reality of resource redistribution among key networked elites and their supporters Overall the book offers a way to explain what it was that the international community and the Afghan elites in power got so wrong that brought Afghanistan full circle and the Taliban back to power
