Sturm,2001 The first edition provides descriptions of folktales and references to more than 700 published sources of folktales The new edition covers folktales from 1983 1999 Both editions include thorough indexing by subject motif title ethnic group and country of origin and a comprehensive bibliography Critical Companion to Chaucer Rosalyn Rossignol,2006 Examines the life and writings of Geoffrey Chaucer including detailed synopses of his works explanations of literary terms character portraits social and historical influences and more Valencian Folktales, Volume 3 Paul Scott

Derrick, Maria-Lluïsa Gea-Valor, 2025-06-27 Enric Valor 1911 2000 is one of the most important Valencian authors of the 20th century This third selection of his highly popular rondalles folktales will complete the publication of his folktales in English translation At a time when Catalan was under threat from the cultural bulldozer of the Franco regime which condemned the use of anything but Castilian Spanish in public communication Valor went to great lengths to disseminate knowledge of the language through writing grammar and linguistic studies as well as teaching it to fellow inmates when he was imprisoned by the regime for his cultural activities These tales collected over a number of years in small villages in the province of Alacant were a significant part of his ongoing efforts to safeguard the Catalan language and the culture and history of the region The Rondalles Valencianes have been compared to Italo Calvino's Italian Folk Tales and Henri Pourrat's Treasury of French Folk Tales Like them Valor aimed in rewriting the oral material to establish a common national body of folk narratives and to make the stories more appealing to Valencian readers young and old alike The critical introduction provides a classification of the tales in terms of themes and motifs and also explores relevant historical and social aspects that characterize Valor's folktale corpus

Sea Eyes Manuel Sánchez, After years away Ivan returns to Moscow searching for answers about his mother Katya a mysterious woman who disappeared when he was just a boy His journey leads him to Anastasia Katya's twin sister and into the heart of a family history shaped by love betrayal Cold War secrets and painful truths long buried Spanning from the icy plains of Mongolia and Soviet Russia to the warm coast of Spain Sea Eyes tells the unforgettable story of two sisters bound by the past and the choices that changed everything With emotional depth and page turning suspense Manuel Sánchez delivers a powerful novel about identity memory and the silent weight of guilt Sometimes the answers we search for aren't in the past but in the eyes of those still with us

Baba Yaga Andreas Johns, 2004 Baba Yaga is a well known witch from the folklore tradition of Russia Ukraine and Belarus A fascinating and colorful character she resembles witches of other traditions but is in many ways unique Living in the forest in a hut that stands and moves on chicken legs she travels in a mortar with a pestle and sweeps away her tracks with a broom In some tales she tries to harm the protagonist while in others she is helpful This book investigates the image and ambiguity of Baba Yaga in detail and considers the meanings she has for East Slavic culture Providing a broad survey of folktales and other sources it is the most thorough study of Baba Yaga yet published and will be of interest to students of anthropology comparative literature folklore and Slavic and East European studies

Gender Representation in Learning Materials Abolaji S. Mustapha, Sara Mills, 2015-08-11 Representations of gender in learning materials convey an implicit message to students about attitudes towards culturally appropriate gender roles for women and men This collection takes a linguistic approach to exploring theories about gender representation within the sphere of education and textbooks and their effects on readers and students within an international context In the opening section contributors discuss theories of representation and effect challenging the conventional Althusserian model of interpellation and acknowledging the challenges of applying Western feminist models within an international context

Following chapters provide detailed analyses focusing on a number of different countries Australia Japan Brazil Finland Russia Hong Kong Nigeria Germany Qatar Tanzania and Poland Through linguistic analysis of vocabulary associated with women and men content analysis of what women and men say in textbooks and discourse analysis of the types of linguistic moves associated with women and men contributors evaluate the extent to which gendered representations in textbooks perpetuate stereotypical gender roles what the impact may be on learners and the ways that both teachers and learners interact and engage with these texts
