The Fractured Family The Second Sex And Its Disconnected Daughters:

Jane Austen and her Readers, 1786-1945 Katie Halsey, 2013-10-15 Jane Austen and her Readers 1786-1945 is a study of the history of reading Jane Austen's novels. It discusses Austen's own ideas about books and readers, the uses she makes of her reading, and the aspects of her style that are related to the ways in which she has been read. The volume considers the role of editions and criticism in directing readers' responses and presents and analyses a variety of source material related to the ordinary readers who read Austen's works between 1786 and 1945. Sex, the Self, and the Sacred Colleen Ryan-Scheutz, 2007-01-01 Drawing upon Italy's distinct socio-cultural history as well as feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to film, Colleen Ryan-Scheutz explores the ways in which Pasolini's representations of women reveal his concerns about the corruption of modern society. The Other Within Fredrika Scarth, 2004-11-22 In The Other Within, Fredrika Scarth offers a reading of The Second Sex as an ethical text driven by Beauvoir's preoccupation with what possibilities have been closed off to women by patriarchal structures of oppression and inequality. Scarth offers a unique and enlightening study of Beauvoir's writing on the female body and particularly on maternity as an important piece of Beauvoir's writing. Unlike other feminist scholars who find in Beauvoir's writing a repudiation of motherhood, Scarth argues that Beauvoir's writing on maternity can open up new possibilities of embodied subjectivity and agency, agrounding an authentic ethical relationship with the other. The Fractured Family Elizabeth L. MacNabb, 1993 The Fractured Family brings together an unusual and provocative combination of feminist literary criticism and social psychology as well as traditional and non-traditional psychoanalytic thought. It tells the story of Simone de Beauvoir's 1953 feminist manifesto The Second Sex, which has functioned as a kind of unwilling mother to later feminist works. Suggesting that the feminist family has developed in a dysfunctional patriarchal environment, this book explores ways in which real mother-daughter relationships parallel those of feminist critical texts. In doing so, The Fractured Family proposes that Beauvoir's The Second Sex is perhaps the most significant feminist work of the contemporary era. Sex and Deviance Guillaume Faye, 2014-11-26 Sex and Deviance is at once a raging critique of the values underpinning contemporary Western societies and a down-to-earth pragmatic vision of the future. Guillaume Faye is meticulous in his analysis of the points at which Western societies have deviated from their golden mean, thus having triggered the tidal wave of social ills that they are facing and can expect to face. Faye identifies at the centre of this vortex the matter of sex and sexuality and with this proffers an answer to the perennial question: What is the glue that holds societies together? Faye's penetrating assault on the specious thinking of ideologues is certain to rattle the convictions of those from across the spectrum. Much more than just a socio-political exposition, this book is an invitation to shed old ways of thinking and to begin new, hard-headed discussion over the most pertinent issues of this century. When Women Kill Belinda Morrissey, 2003 Why are we so reluctant to believe that women can mean to kill? Based on case studies from the US, UK, and Australia, this book looks at the ways in which female killers are constructed in the media, in law, and in feminist discourse almost invariably as victims rather than actors in the crimes they commit Morrissey argues that by denying the possibility of female agency in crimes of torture rape and murder feminist theorists are with the best of intentions actually denying women the full freedom to be human Case studies cover among others the battered wife Pamela Sainsbury who garrotted her husband as he slept the serial killer Aileen Wournos who killed seven middle aged men in Florida between 1989 and 1990 Tracey Wiggington the so called lesbian vampire killer and Karla Homolka who helped her husband kill two teenage girls in St Catherines Ontario in 1993
