Clancy, 2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet Cézanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history's most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes

Europe in the Nineteenth Century Harry Hearder, 2014-01-21 The period between 1830 and 1880 was one of immense activity radical political change and striking economic and social growth in Europe The major themes of the struggles between individuals parties and classes within the state and between the states themselves are explored within the context of a study of the administration organisation and growth of European society The whole book has been fully revised and updated particularly the section on German history Professor Hearder has also given greater consideration to many important issues such as popular movements of protest and insurrection life styles and the role of women

"Elizabeth Robins Pennell, Nineteenth-Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism " KimberlyMorse Jones, 2017-07-05 Mining various archives and newspaper repositories Elizabeth Robins Pennell Nineteenth Century Pioneer of Modern Art Criticism provides the first full length study of a remarkable woman and heretofore neglected art critic Pennell a prolific New Art Critic helped formulate and develop formalist methodology in Britain at the end of the nineteenth century which she applied to her mostly anonymous or pseudonymous reviews published in numerous American and British newspapers and periodicals between 1883 and 1923 A bibliography of her art criticism is included as an appendix In addition to advocating an advanced way in which to view art Pennell used her platform to promote the work of new artists including ouard Manet and Edgar Degas which had only recently been introduced to British audiences In particular Pennell championed the work of James McNeill Whistler for whom she along with her husband the artist Joseph Pennell wrote a biography Examination of her contributions to the late Victorian art world also highlights the pivotal role of criticism in the production and consumption of art in general a point which is often ignored
