International Law Situated Outi Korhonene, 2021-10-25 International Law Situated is the first study in the series of International Law Monographs by the Erik Castrén Institute of International Law and Human Rights It is an analysis of both theoretical ambition and practical relevance examining the existential and professional situation of the international lawyer from a range of different perspectives How do international lawyers think about cultural difference and similarity What is the role of historical facts in international law and practice How do lawyers construe notions such as community or humanity what role is played therein by normative ideas about similarity and difference or of the good life What kinds of ethical considerations are implicit in international law and how should practitioners think about them This book provides a general framework for responding to these questions and shows their impact and relevance through doctrinal and case contexts It argues for an emphasis on the individual jurist and her situation as an adviser an advocate an analyst and a decision maker

The International Legal Protection of Children in Street Situations Sylvia Agu, 2025-08-12 The book conducts a comprehensive analysis of codified international legal instruments and documents in their application to children in street situations employing soft law documents to elucidate treaty interpretation and supplement existing legal standards The research adopts a holistic approach correlating international legal instruments with root causes and consequences for children in street situations while systematically examining issues of intersectionality such as economic social and cultural rights civil and political rights minority rights including disability rights rights of the girl child as well as LGBTQI and migrant rights reparations impact of violence and access to essential services like health food and housing with various human rights issues including economic social cultural and civil political rights It presents the plight of children in street situations as a human rights concern offering guidance on utilising international legal sources in rights claims procedures The study also integrates sociological and political perspectives with legal and governmental policy issues examining the influence of external factors such as conditional lending and structural adjustment programmes wars and decolonisation on social policies and their consequent impact on children and families by rendering children in street situations visible as a distinct category requiring urgent attention in State policy formulation By systematically integrating international legal instruments with practical policy considerations and applications concerning children in street situations this scholarly work serves as a comprehensive legal framework for State governments their bodies and social workers and a valuable advocacy guide for interest groups including non governmental organisations proposing future directions for policy and research for addressing the rights and needs of children in street situations

The Nature of International Law Gerry

Simpson, 2017-10-05 This title was first published in 2002 The purpose of this volume is to provide a map of some of the great theoretical debates within the discipline of international law The essays included are structured as dialogues between international legal theorists on concrete subjects such as democracy gender compliance sovereignty and justice They represent the most interesting theoretical work undertaken in international law
