Department of Justice, 1975 Federal Parole Decision-making, 1978 Criminal Court Consultation Richard Rosner, Ronnie B. Harmon, 2012-12-06 During the 1980s those of us who were involved in forensic psychiatry have seen an increase in the interest in our subspecialty This increased interest has been from psychiatrists lawyers judges and correctional officials as well As a part of this demand for our services there has also been an increase in the demand for detailed quality in our reports and testimony Whether this is the result of the educational efforts of the American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law the establishment of the American Board of Forensic Psychiatry the stimulation of thought by the publication of this series Critical Issues in American Psychiatry and the Law or Supreme Court decisions such as Ake v Oklahoma is anybody's guess My experience as an observer of the development of the patient's rights movement was that there was a coalescence of numerous forces such as the new human rights movement the active mental health bar and the development of neuroleptics I therefore suspect that there are a multitude of factors contributing to the new interest in forensic psychiatry and the elevation of the standards of forensic experts Regardless of the causes those who are practicing forensic psychiatry today are expected to conduct more thorough evaluations and to report findings more completely No longer will simple conclusory statements be acceptable The forensic psychiatrist is expected to present data in a clear understandable detailed reliable and competent fashion whether testifying or in a report Library Book Catalog United States. Murder and Penal Policy Barry Mitchell, 1990-06-13 Based on a two part study this book examines the courts interpretation of murder and the management of those serving life sentences for murder It discusses the law legal reforms life imprisonment and the possibilities for releasing lifers without endangering the public Alternatives to Institutionalization Marjorie Kravitz, 1979 Federal Parole Decision-making: No title, 1984 Library Book Catalog, Author Catalog, Volume 2 United States.
