The Guelph Seminars On Sustainable Development:

The Guelph Seminars on Sustainable Development Stewart Garvie Hilts, Anthony M. Fuller, University of Guelph. University School of Rural Planning and Development, 1990

The Sustainability of Rural Systems I.R. Bowler, C.R. Bryant, C. Cocklin, 2013-06-29 Economy society and environment comprise the three main dimensions of sustainable development but too often they are considered separately This book by comparison examines the interaction of the three dimensions in the context of rural systems embracing a wide range of topics including globalisation and reregulation in sustainable food production conservation and sustainability the development of sustainable rural communities and sustainable rural urban interaction An international team of geographers drawn from the International Geographical Union's Commission on The Sustainability of Rural Systems summarises the basis of unsustainable rural development in these topics the remedial policies being pursued and their own evaluations of the policies Rather than deal just with generalisations their analyses are illustrated by detailed case studies drawn from a variety of rural systems in both developed and developing countries

The Social Organization of Policy Lauren E. Recovering Canada John Borrows, 2017-06-22 Canada is covered by a system of law and governance that largely obscures and ignores the presence of pre-existing Indigenous regimes Indigenous law however has continuing relevance for both Aboriginal peoples and the Canadian state In his in-depth examination of the continued existence and application of Indigenous legal values John Borrows suggests how First Nations laws could be applied by Canadian courts and tempers this by pointing out the many difficulties that would occur if the courts attempted to follow such an approach By contrasting and comparing Aboriginal stories and Canadian case law and interweaving political commentary Borrows argues that there is a better way to constitute Aboriginal Crown relations in Canada He suggests that the application of Indigenous legal perspectives to a broad spectrum of issues that confront us as humans will help Canada recover from its colonial past and help Indigenous people recover their country Borrows concludes by demonstrating how Indigenous peoples law could be more fully and consciously integrated with Canadian law to produce a society where two world views can co exist and a different vision of the Canadian constitution and citizenship can be created Medici Women Jennifer Sumner,Gabrielle Langdon,2006-01-01
