The Hand Of The Master Craftmanship Ivory And Society In Byzantium 9th 11th Centuries:

The Hand of the Master Anthony Cutler, 1994 This book is the first detailed study in fifty years of Byzantine ivory carving in the tenth and eleventh centuries the era when work in that medium reached its highest level of attainment Unique in its aim and range The Hand of the Master considers how when and why the Byzantines used ivory for icons and other luxurious items Based on direct study of the objects the book discusses more than 150 pieces and is illustrated with new photographs that are indispensable to an understanding of carving techniques and styles Cutler analyzes the normal working methods of Byzantine carvers as well as aspects of craftsmanship that enable us to identify distinct hands These observations are then made the basis of both a revised chronology and a more rigorous system of classification than has existed heretofore But the recognition of particular sculptors is a means rather than an end in this book Similarities and differences within this huge body of production allow answers to such broader questions as the functions of craftsmen in this society their relations with clients and designers and ultimately the significance of ivory in the visual culture of Byzantium Anthony Cutler, The Hand of the Master : Craftmanship, Ivory, and Society in Byzantium (9th-11th Centuries). some pioneering studies of female patrons rural nuns and the links of many Byzantine women to Mount Athos The volume also complements Talbot's 2019 monograph Varieties of Monastic Experience in Byzantium 800-1453 by offering detailed analyses of topics that could only be briefly addressed in that book Introductory essays include an overview of the historical development of Byzantine monasteries and holy mountains emphasising the intertwining of monasticism with urban and rural society Subsequent essays explore the regimen at coenobitic monasteries while paying considerable attention to the less well known lifestyles of hermits especially those on holy mountains Other topics include monastery gardens and horticulture the culture of the refectory challenges for adolescent novices factors influencing the choice of a monastery's foundation site female patronage of monastery construction and restoration the conversion of monasteries from male to female and vice versa rules regarding personal poverty for monastics and the choice of a monastic name

Urban and Religious Spaces in Late Antiquity and Early Byzantium Jean-Michel Spieser, 2024-12-11 Professor Spieser deals here with a number of the transformations that took place in the world of Late Antiquity and early Christianity focusing upon notions of space The first set of articles opening with a newly written introductory essay addresses the development of urban landscapes from the Roman period up to the iconoclast era in Byzantium In particular he looks at the consequences of christianisation and argues that the changing fortunes of the town cannot be attributed to a few causes such as war or natural disaster but resulted from a complex interplay between the economy and ideology religion and politics A second group concerned with the relationship of late antique man with his surroundings and therefore his perception of space sets out to explain how the decoration of churches on apses for example or on doors reflects new senses of how religious spaces should be organised Six of these studies have been translated into English for this volume and it ends with an important section of additional notes and comment

Through a Glass Brightly Chris Entwistle, 2016-09-28 The twenty five papers in this volume cover diverse aspects of the material culture of the late Roman Byzantine and Medieval periods with particular emphasis on the metalwork and enamel of these times Individual papers include major reinterpretations of objects in the British Museum's Byzantine collections as well as essays devoted to the Museum's recent acquisitions in this field The volume celebrates the retirement of David Buckton for over twenty years the curator of the British Museum's Early Christian and Byzantine collections and the National Icon Collection

The Oliphant Avino'am Šālēm, 2004-01-01 This book discusses a group of medieval carved ivory horns namely oliphants It draws upon medieval visual as well as literary sources both Arabic and Latin with an eye to providing an original interpretation of these objects In doing so it breaks new ground in the understanding of both oliphants and the historical context of medieval artefacts in general

Image Making in Byzantium, Sasanian Persia and the Early Muslim World Anthony Cutler, 2023-05-31 Relations between Byzantium and its neighbours are the focus of this volume The papers address questions of cultural exchange with special attention to art historical relations as shown by technical iconographic and diplomatic exchanges While addressed to specialists both their approach and the language make these papers accessible to students at all levels Medieval Iconography John B. Friedman, Jessica M. Wegmann, 2021-11-18

Silver and Society in Late Antiquity Ruth E. Leader-Newby, 2017-05-15 The spectacular hoards of late antique silver Mildenhall Thetford Sevso discovered since the middle of the last century have aroused much interest in this luxury art form But what did these pieces mean to their owners and why was silverware so important in late antiquity Silver and Society in Late Antiquity examines such questions through an integrated synthetic analysis of the history of silver in the Roman empire between 300 and 650 AD focusing upon the cultural significance of this luxury art form in all its different manifestations sacred imperial and domestic Ruth Leader Newby looks at a wide range of objects from both the eastern and western halves of the Roman empire including Britain in order to determine silver s role in the wider sphere of late antique visual culture asking questions about the relative significance of individual forms of artistic production and their relationship with each other In doing so key issues for the artistic and cultural history of late antiquity are raised the use of the imperial image the visual construction of the sacred in Christianity the cohesive social role of elite intellectual culture and the Christianization of the domestic sphere As this book demonstrates when studied in its historical context silver can substantially enrich our understanding of late Roman art and culture A Companion to Byzantium Liz James, 2010-01-29 Using new methodological Greek Commentaries on the Nicomachean Ethics Charles E. Barber, David Todd Jenkins, 2009 Given the enduring importance of Aristotle s Nicomachean Ethics it is remarkable to find that there is no extensive surviving commentary on this text from the period between the second century and the twelfth century This volume is focused on the first of the medieval commentaries that produced in the early twelfth century by Eustratios of Nicaea Michael of Ephesus and an anonymous author in Constantinople This endeavor was to have a significant impact on the reception of the Nicomachean Ethics in Latin and Catholic Europe For in the mid thirteenth century Robert Grosseteste translated into Latin a manuscript that contained these Byzantine commentators Both Albertus Magnus and Bonaventure then used this translation as a basis for their discussions of Aristotle s book Contributors are George Arabatzis Charles Barber Linos Benakis Elizabeth Fisher Peter

Clair, 2003-08-29 From 1989 to 1994 more than fifteen hundred bone and ivory objects were excavated from the northeast slope of Rome's Palatine Hill. These remains constitute the largest such find in the western Mediterranean and the first traces of the actual working of ivory in Rome itself. In this original work art historian Archer St Clair explores the significance of these finds in understanding both the development of artisanship in Rome and the broader Greco-Roman cultural and artistic tradition to which they belong. Dating primarily from the first through the fifth century C.E. the carved objects include ornamentation for furniture and boxes in the form of plaques and framing strips; jewelry; dolls; a wide variety of pins; as well as smaller numbers of handles, needles, and other implements. Also present at the site was extensive evidence of a bone and ivory workshop including prepared blanks and waste fragments that provide valuable evidence for artisanal practices in both materials. This volume includes a representative catalog of 648 objects from Palatine East, extensively illustrated with photographs and detailed drawings. Four chapters of introductory material offer a comprehensive overview of the material properties of bone and ivory, the literary evidence, and wider context of their use in the ancient world and the particular significance of the Palatine East site. While bone has often been treated simply as an inferior and less valuable alternative to ivory, St Clair notes the close association in their use and elucidates a complex relationship between them. In doing so, she offers a detailed contextual study of the uses, social perception, and distribution of the two materials, revealing a shared Mediterranean vocabulary of form and technique.

Byzantium/Modernism, 2015-06-29 Byzantium/Modernism features contributions by fourteen international scholars and brings together a diverse range of interdisciplinary essays on art, architecture, theatre, film, literature, and philosophy which examine how and why Byzantine art and image theory can contribute to our understanding of modern and contemporary visual culture. Particular attention is given to intercultural dialogues between the former dominions of the Byzantine Empire with a special focus on Greece, Turkey, and Russia, and the artistic production of Western Europe and America. Together, these essays invite the reader to think critically and theoretically about the dialogic interchange between Byzantium and modernism and to consider this cross-temporal encounter as an ongoing and historically deep narrative rather than an ephemeral or localized trend. Contributors are Tulay Atak, Charles Barber, Elena Boeck, Anthony Cutler, Rico Franses, Dimitra Kotoula, Marie Jos Mondzain, Myroslava M. Mudrak, Robert S. Nelson, Robert Ousterhout, Stratis Papaioannou, Glenn Peers, Jane A. Sharp, and Devin Singh.

Memory & Oblivion A.W. Reinink, Jeroen Stumpel, 2012-12-06 Memory is a subject that recently has attracted many scholars and readers not only in the general historical sciences but also in the special field of art history. However, in this book, in which more than 130 papers given at the XXIXth International Congress of the History of Art, Amsterdam 1996, have been compiled, Memory is also juxtaposed to its counterpart Oblivion, thus generating extra excitement in the exchange of ideas. The papers are presented in eleven sections, each of which is devoted to a different aspect of memory and oblivion, ranging from purely material aspects of preservation to social phenomena with regard to art collecting, from the memory of the art historian to workshop practices.
