The Handbook Of Canadian Film 2nd Edition

Emma Battell Lowman, Adam J. Barker

The Handbook Of Canadian Film 2nd Edition:

Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film Wyndham Wise, 2001-12-15 Take One's Essential Guide to Canadian Film is the most exhaustive and up to date reference book on Canadian film and filmmakers combining 700 reviews and biographical listings with a detailed chronology of major events in Canadian film and television history Compiled by Wyndham Wise the editor and publisher of Take One Canada's most respected film magazine with a foreword by Canadian director Patricia Rozema this is the only reference book of its kind published in English Each film title is listed with credits a mini review and significant awards Biographical listings of directors producers actors writers animators cinematographers distributors exhibitors and independent filmmakers are accompanied by date and place of birth date of death if applicable a brief career overview and a filmography Wise celebrates Canadian achievement on both a national and an international scale and juxtaposes the distinctly Canadian with Canada's exports to Hollywood Maury Chaykin and Jim Carrey John Candy and William Shatner Mon Oncle Antoine and Porky's Highway 61 and Meatballs The Red Violin and The Art of War From great early Hollywood stars like Walter Huston Fay Wray Mary Pickford Norma Shearer and Marie Dressler to our current crop of star directors including Patricia Rozema Atom Egoyan David Cronenberg Denys Arcand Peter Mettler Guy Maddin and Robert Lepage Canadians have made an important but largely unrecorded contribution to the history of world cinema Impressive for its breadth of coverage refreshing in its opinionated informality this comprehensive and lively look at Canadian film culture at the start of the twenty first century admirably fills the gap How to Read a Film James Monaco, 1981 Now thoroughly revised and updated the book discusses recent breakthroughs in media technology including such exciting advances as video discs and cassettes two way television satellites cable and much more Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film 3-Volume Set Ian Aitken, 2013-10-18 The Encyclopedia of the Documentary Film is a fully international reference work on the history of the documentary film from the Lumi re brothers Workers Leaving the Lumi re Factory 1885 to Michael Moore's Fahrenheit 911 2004 This Encyclopedia provides a resource that critically analyzes that history in all its aspects Not only does this Encyclopedia examine individual films and the careers of individual film makers it also provides overview articles of national and regional documentary film history It explains concepts and themes in the study of documentary film the techniques used in making films and the institutions that support their production appreciation and preservation Settler, 2nd Edition Emma Battell Lowman, Adam J. Barker, 2025-04-17T00:00:00Z A decade ago the first edition of this defining book explained what it meant to be Settler acknowledging that Canada has been forged through ongoing violence displacement and assimilation of Indigenous communities and Nations and argued that accepting this identity is an important first step towards changing relationships with Indigenous Peoples The national conversation about settler colonialism has advanced significantly since that time thanks to Indigenous struggles that have resulted in high profile official apologies and inquiries into the devastating inequity between Indigenous and Settler lives in Canada However this progress is not enough many of the same problems persist due to the underlying inequities at the core of Canadian identity politics and society In this revised second edition Battell Lowman and Barker reflect on the term s changing more nuanced and continued importance Touching on the rise of right wing nationalism the power and limitations of social media and ten years of federal Liberal government this new edition of Settler considers the successes and failures of Settler Canadians in supporting decolonization and charting our next steps towards transformative change The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister,1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L Pallister s The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House

Canadian Books in Print ,2000 Paul Bern E.J. Fleming,2009-03-23 Paul Bern known throughout the movie business as Hollywood s Father Confessor earned a reputation for being a loyal and supportive friend and for becoming one of MGM s most respected and creative directors After his death though he was said to have grown so depressed and despondent over his own apparent sexual inadequacies that he committed suicide and he would be denounced for attempting to rape his new bride Jean Harlow In this biography the author uncovers startling new facts and argues that MGM knew the real story of Bern s death that an estranged mentally ill common law wife murdered him MGM understood that the earlier spouse rendered Bern s marriage to Harlow its fastest rising star ambiguous if not bigamous so the studio staged a suicide and embarked on a very public tarnishing of his memory Included are 93 rare photos many lost for decades along with three appendices examining the handwriting on an alleged suicide note and Bern s will and estate Resources in Education ,1997 A New History of Documentary Film Betsy A. McLane,2013-03-28 A New History of Documentary Film Second Edition offers a much needed resource considering the very rapid changes taking place within documentary media Building upon the best selling 2005 edition Betsy McLane keeps the same chronological examination factual reliability ease of use and accessible prose style as before while also weaving three new threads Experimental Documentary Visual Anthropology and Environmental Nature Films into the discussion She provides emphasis on archival and preservation history present practices and future needs for documentaries Along with preservation information specific problems of copyright and fair use as they relate to documentary are considered Finally A History of Documentary Film retains and updates the recommended readings and important films and the end of each chapter from the first edition including the bibliography and appendices Impossible to talk learnedly about documentary film without an audio visual component a companion website will increase its depth of information and overall usefulness to students teachers and film enthusiasts The Canada Year Book ,1974

American Cinematographer ,1978 Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond,Martine M. Caron,1996 This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people institutions organizations publications art literature languages and history It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities These large divisions are then broken down by subject genre type of document and province or territory Titles of national provincial territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available The contents of the book are indexed four ways by name title French subject and English subject And to facilitate browsing the major reference books those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region are also cross referenced Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages Entries for unilingual works include a citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content arrangements and indexing of works the availability of non print formats previous editions and title changes and related works Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers
