The Haunting Of Kildoran Abbey:

The Haunting of Kildoran Abbey Eve Bunting, 1978-01-01 Caught in the grip of a severe famine eight hungry homeless youngsters join forces for one simple mission to steal food from the rich and feed the poor Holodomor and Gorta Mór Christian Noack, Lindsay Janssen, Vincent Comerford, 2014-10-01 Ireland's Great Famine or an Gorta Mór 1845-51 and Ukraine's Holodomor 1932-33 occupy central places in the national historiographies of their respective countries Acknowledging that questions of collective memory have become a central issue in cultural studies this volume inquires into the role of historical experiences of hunger and deprivation within the emerging national identities and national historical narratives of Ireland and Ukraine In the Irish case a solid body of research has been compiled over the last 150 years while Ukraine's Holodomor by contrast was something of an open secret that historians could only seriously research after the demise of communist rule This volume is the first attempt to draw these approaches together and to allow for a comparative study of how the historical experiences of famine were translated into narratives that supported political claims for independent national statehood in Ireland and Ukraine Juxtaposing studies on the Irish and Ukrainian cases written by eminent historians political scientists and literary and film scholars the essays in this interdisciplinary volume analyse how national historical narratives were constructed and disseminated whether or not they changed with circumstances or were challenged by competing visions both academic and non academic In doing so the essays discuss themes such as representation commemoration and mediation and the influence of these processes on the shaping of cultural memory

The Presence of the Past in Children's Literature Ann Lucas, 2003-09-30 Time is one of the most prominent themes in the relatively young genre of children's literature for the young like adults want to know about the past This book explores how children's writers have treated the theme and concept of time The volume starts with the application of literary theory and additionally analyzes examples of the juvenile historical novel In doing so it also examines changing fashions in criticism and publishing and the pressure they exert on writers It then considers literary adaptations of myths and archetypes constructions of history in children's literature colonial and postcolonial children's fiction and the treatment of the past in the postmodern era The book looks at literature from around the world and the expert contributors are from diverse countries and backgrounds While the book looks primarily at literature of the 19th and 20th centuries it considers a broad range of historical material treated in works from that period Included are discussions of such topics as Joan of Arc in children's literature the legacy of Robinson Crusoe colonial and postcolonial children's literature the Holocaust and the supernatural International in scope the volume examines history and collective memory in Portuguese children's fiction Australian history in picture books Norwegian children's literature and literary treatments of the great Irish famine Critical Approaches to Food in Children's Literature Kara K. Keeling, Scott T. Pollard, 2012-03-20 This book is the first scholarly volume to connect children's literature to the burgeoning discipline of food studies Spanning genres and regions the essays utilize a variety of approaches including archival research cultural studies formalism gender studies post colonialism post structuralism race studies structuralism and theology Catalog of Copyright Entries, Fourth Series Library of Congress.
