Mastering: The Artists Russ Hepworth-Sawyer, Jay Hodgson, 2018-09-28 Audio Mastering The Artists collects more than twenty interviews drawn from more than 60 hours of discussions with many of the world's leading mastering engineers. In these exclusive and often intimate interviews, engineers consider the audio mastering process as they themselves experience and shape it as the leading artists in their field. Each interview covers how engineers got started in the recording industry, what prompted them to pursue mastering, how they learned about the process, which tools and techniques they routinely use when they work, and a host of other particulars of their crafts. We also spoke with mix engineers and craftsmen responsible for some of the more iconic mastering tools now on the market to gain a broader perspective on their work. This book is the first to provide such a comprehensive overview of the audio mastering process told from the point of view of the artists who engage in it. In so doing, it pulls the curtain back on a crucial but seldom heard from agency in record production at large.

Holm, 2013-04-03 Developed from the established traditions of print and radio journalism, television journalism has often failed to reach its potential to develop away from these other media. In Fascination, veteran television journalist Nancy Graham Holm incorporates years in the field and extensive teaching experience to produce an instructive and entertaining guide to all aspects of television journalism. With a dual focus on aesthetics and technique, this book instructs the reader on the best way to use visuals and sound, different reporting techniques, and appropriate behaviour for journalists. Each chapter benefits from real-world examples and helpful tips to guide the reader through each stage of television journalism. This book is an excellent guide for those wanting to start a career in television journalism as well as seasoned professionals wishing to gain a new perspective. The 'New' Documentary Nexus Anna Wiehl, 2019-05-23 In
