The Forgotten People Of The Pacific:

The Forgotten People of the Pacific Philippe Diolé, 1976 The Vietnam War in the Pacific World Brian Cuddy, Fredrik Logevall, 2022-10-05 Fifty years since the signing of the Paris Peace Accords signaled the final withdrawal of U S troops from Vietnam the war's mark on the Pacific world remains The essays gathered here offer an essential postcolonial interpretation of a struggle rooted not only in Indochinese history but also in the wider Asia Pacific region Extending the Vietnam War's historiography away from a singular focus on American policies and experiences and toward fundamental regional dynamics the book reveals a truly global struggle that made the Pacific world what it is today Contributors include David L Anderson Mattias Fibiger Zach Fredman Marc Jason Gilbert Alice S Kim Mark Atwood Lawrence Jason Lim Jana K Lipman Greg Lockhart S R Joey Long Christopher Lovins Mia Martin Hobbs Boi Huyen Ngo Wen Qing Ngoei Nathalie Huynh Chau Nguyen Noriko Shiratori Lisa Tran A Gabrielle Westcott The Pacific: The Papua Series 3 Peter Watt, 2011-11-01 As a war correspondent covering the Second World War Ilsa Stahl isn't afraid to be on the front line But when her plane goes down in a terrible storm over Papuan waters and she is taken prisoner by the Japanese she has every reason to be terrified Particularly as they plan to hand her over to the Nazis When Jack Kelly discovers that his only daughter has fallen into the hands of the enemy he will stop at nothing to save her Even if it means risking the life of his only son Lukas No one knows Papua the way they do they may be Ilsa's only hope but time is running out Meanwhile Major Karl Mann is sent on a secret mission to Indo China that will see him embroiled in Ilsa's rescue mission in ways he could never have imagined This sweeping saga continues the story of the Kellys and Manns following Peter Watt's much loved characters as they fight to survive one of the most devastating conflicts in history the war on Australia's backdoor step Art and Performance in Oceania Barry Craig, Bernie Kernot, Christopher Anderson, 1999-12-01 The Fifth International Symposium of the Pacific Arts Association titled Art Performance and Society called for papers in sessions dealing with Production and Performance Social and Cultural Context The Record and the Remainder and The Mission of Museums In all some sixty papers were presented twenty four of which have been included in this book The first two topics elicited several papers that explored the creative process including the description and analysis of performance and the taxonomy of objects used the transmission of cultural knowledge and the identity and work of individual artists The second two topics provided the opportunity for papers on some significant early museum collectors and collections various methods of documenting cultural material such as photography how cultural material has been and can be exhibited and the role of museums and cultural centers in Pacific Island countries After Eating Lindsay Kelley, 2023-12-05 An exploration of food ingestion and digestion in the emerging field of the metabolic arts Food appears everywhere in the arts But what happens after viewers carry food away in the intestinal networks activated by social practice art the same way digestion turns food into a body Exploring the emerging field of metabolic arts After Eating claims digestion and metabolism as key cultural creative and political processes that demand attention Taking an artist centered approach to nutrition Lindsay Kelley cultivates a neglected middle ground between the everyday and the scientific using metabolism as a lens through which to read and write about art Divided into two parts and full of playful chapter titles such as Food Babies and Poop Circus After Eating investigates multiple facets of the sociocultural implications of body image and body process in body art from the 1970s to the present By engaging the notion of after as an artistic homage or tribute metabolism moves beyond the cell to transform into a method for responding to the most difficult cultural philosophical and political challenges of the contemporary moment Metabolic reading rethinks feminist queer bioart installation and performance projects providing artists students and teachers with new pathways into art theory

Decolonisation and the Pacific Tracey Banivanua Mar, 2016-04-26 This book charts the previously untold story of the mobility of Indigenous peoples across vast distances vividly reshaping what is known about decolonisation

The Art of Tonga Keith St. Cartmail, 1997-10-01 Tongan art with its elegant sculpture headrests body adornment clubs containers tools and fibre work has made an outstanding contribution to the culture of Oceania In The Art of Tonga Keith St Cartmail's achievement is to draw together all the strands of this island kingdom's material culture into a single volume surprisingly no other work has done this to date The author begins by outlining the history of Tonga then comprehensively details all aspects of Tongan art ancient and modern He clearly documents the significance and widespread influence of this beautiful art work through West Polynesia and argues that despite recent neglect and in spite of being mutilated and destroyed by missionaries and dispersed by collectors to all corners of the earth Tongan art is nonetheless alive and well Authoritative and accessible The Art of Tonga is lavishly illustrated with superb and important examples of Tongan art from throughout its history It is essential reading for anyone with an interest in the magnificent cultures of Oceania

Remembrance of Pacific Pasts Robert Borofsky, 2020-02-29 How does one describe the Pacific's pasts The easy confidence historians once had in writing about the region has disappeared in the turmoil surrounding today's politics of representation Earlier narratives that focused on what happened when are now accused of encouraging myths of progress Remembrance of Pacific Pasts takes a different course It acknowledges history's multiplicity and selectivity its inability to represent the past in its entirety as it really was and instead offers points of reference for thinking with and about the region's pasts It encourages readers to participate in the historical process by constructing alternative histories that draw on the volume's chapters The book's thirty four contributions written by a range of authors spanning a variety of styles and disciplines are organized into four sections The first presents frames of reference for analyzing the problems poetics and politics involved in addressing the region's pasts today The second considers early Islander Western contact focusing on how each side sought to physically and symbolically control the other The third deals with the colonial dynamics of the region the tensions of empire that permeated imperial rule in the Pacific The fourth explores the region's postcolonial politics through a discussion of the varied ways independence and dependence overlap today Remembrance of Pacific Pasts includes many of the region's most distinguished authors such as

Albert Wendt Greg Denning Epeli Hau'ofa Marshall Sahlins Patricia Grace and Nicholas Thomas In addition it features chapters by well known writers from outside Pacific Studies Edward Said James Clifford Richard White and Gyan Prakash which help place the region's dynamics in comparative perspective By moving Pacific history beyond traditional empirical narratives to new ways for conversing about history by drawing on current debates surrounding the politics of representation to offer different ways for thinking about the region's pasts this work has relevance for students and scholars of history anthropology and cultural studies both within and beyond the region Forty Years on the Pacific, 1925 Is International Law Even Law? Leah L. Carmichael, 2021-05-07 International law is so fundamentally distinct from domestic law that some even question whether it is the law at all Unlike domestic law in which the state can create enforce and interpret the laws there is no higher authority above states in international law As a result states serve as both creators enforcers and adjudicators of international law and are subject to it Most confoundingly even though there is no higher authority than states in the international system states tend to comply with international law most of the time Further when they do violation international law they go to great lengths to defend their actions as within compliance with the law To understand when and why states treat international law as the law in our international system one must understand both the components of a sound legal argument and the political motivations shaping how laws are created when they are followed and when they are ignored
