The Formation Of The State Of Oklahoma:

The Formation of the State of Oklahoma Roy Gittinger, 1917 The Formation of the State of Oklahoma (1803-1906) (Classic Reprint) Roy Gittinger, 2015-07-14 Excerpt from The Formation of the State of Oklahoma 1803 1906 The passage of an enabling act for Oklahoma in June 1906 brought to a close the formation of new states from the Louisiana Purchase The area included within the limits of Oklahoma was kept free from the jurisdiction of a state government longer than any other part of the acquisition This was the outcome of a series of events that are of peculiar interest through their intimate connection with the national Indian policy The promise in the treaty of purchase to admit the inhabitants of Louisiana to all the rights advantages and immunities of American citizens was fulfilled by the organization of the settled districts near the Mississippi River but room was left farther west for a vast Indian country and from this Indian country Oklahoma was the last state formed The law of May 28 1830 in connection with a series of treaties set apart for the Indians the country lying west of Missouri and Arkansas and provided for the removal thither of numerous tribes not only from the reservations east of the Mississippi but also from the states and organized territories west of that river Between 1840 and 1850 the map showed an Indian Territory stretching from the Red River to the Platte while the Sioux and other tribes retained almost unnoticed the country farther north In a few years however conditions led to the organization of the northern portions of this great tract under the names of Nebraska and Kansas and at the beginning of the Civil War the thirty seventh parallel was the northern boundary of the area designated as the Indian Territory From this area in time the state of Oklahoma was formed and admitted into the Union About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Formation of the State of Oklahoma Roy Gittinger, 2015-07 Oklahoma the forty sixth state admitted to the union has a history much more interesting and extensive than its relatively recent statehood indicates Roy Gittinger s classic study begins in 1803 the year of the Louisiana Purchase which brought the region into the United States and closes in 1906 when Indian Territory was poised to become the state of Oklahoma The territory became the home of the Five Civilized Tribes Cherokee Chickasaw Creek Choctaw and Seminole in the years following the Indian Removal Act of 1830 Through treaties and Indian removals later in the century lands were reserved to Plains Indian tribes the Kiowa Comanche and Apache in the southwest Cheyenne and Arapahoe in the west Iowa Kickapoo Pottawatomie and Shawnee in the central portion Osage and other tribes in the north and east The Panhandle was public land and the central region was the Oklahoma District not open to settlement by whites or possessed by any Indian tribe In 1889 the Oklahoma District was thrown open to settlement and the land run allowed thousands of home seekers to settle a portion of the vast territory It set the stage for subsequent openings for a territorial government and finally for Oklahoma statehood in 1907 The Formation of the State of Oklahoma gives a definitive account of the original Indian land grant the treaties that settled tribes in Indian Territory developments after the tribes settled the problems raised by white settlement and the dynamic events that led to the establishment of the commonwealth of Oklahoma
