The Foundation And Application Of Moral Philosophy:

The Foundation and Application of Moral Philosophy Hendrik Opdebeeck, 2000 Paul Ricoeur 1913 prominent French philosopher is one of the most versatile thinkers of our time Moreover he is known to be an extremely gifted lecturer who is able to set forth ethical issues very lucidly His erudition and profundity are also evident in the two texts that are central to this book i e The Problem of the Foundation of Moral Philosophy and Can Forgiveness Heal These lectures constitute a remarkable effort on the part of Ricoeur to find an original and more radical foundation of ethics than can be expressed in any law He demonstrates quite convincingly why the law is not the primary category of ethics He further deals with the question of what might be the evangelical orientation of ethics Finally he sheds light on the specific role of forgiveness The two lectures by Ricoeur which have been translated here from French into English and to which an introduction and three multi disciplinary commentaries have been added not only elucidate a fundamental question in the field of ethics but in a more general sense they are also fine examples of philosophical reasoning

Paul Ricoeur's Pedagogy of Pardon Maria Duffy, 2011-11-03 Maria Duffy describes Paul Ricoeur s narrative theory of memory and addresses central conceptual and methodological issues in his theory of forgiveness and reconciliation As the many Truth Commissions around the world illustrate revisiting the past has a positive benefit in steering history in a new direction after protracted violence A second deeper strand in the book is the connection between Ricoeur and John Paul II Both lived through the worst period of modern European history Ricoeur a prisoner of war during WWII and John Paul who suffered under the communist regime Both have written on themes of memory and identity and share a mutual concern for the future of Europe and the preservation of the Christian identity of the Continent as well as the promotion of peace and a civilization of love The book brings together their shared vision culminating in the award to Ricoeur by John Paul II of the Paul VI medal for theology
