The Four Fundamental Concepts Of Psycho Analysis:

The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-analysis Jacques Lacan, 1998 If psychoanalysis is a science Lacan suggests it may be surprisingly similar to linguistics we need to clarify the meanings of the four fundamental concepts the drive repetition the unconsciousness and transference

Reading Seminar XI Richard Feldstein, Bruce Fink, Maire Jaanus, 1994-12-23 This book provides the first truly sustained commentary to appear in either French or English on Lacan's most important seminar The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis The 16 contributors unpack Lacan's notoriously difficult work in simple terms and supply elegant illustrations from a variety of fields psychoanalytic treatment film literature art and so on Each of Lacan's fundamental concepts the unconscious transference drive and repetition is discussed in detail and related to other important notions such as object a cause of desire the gaze the Name of the Father the subject and the Other This volume also includes a translation of Lacan's companion piece to Seminar XI Position of the Unconscious an article from the French edition of the Ecrits that has never before appeared in English by one of the foremost translators of Lacan's work Bruce Fink As an indication of the importance of this article Lacan considered it to be the sequel to his Function and Field of Speech and Language in Psychoanalysis arguably his most important paper in the 1950s The contributors include many of the best minds in the Lacanian psychoanalytic world in Paris today Chapters include Excommunication Context and Concepts by Jacques Alain Miller The Subject and the Other I and II by Colette Soler Alienation and Separation I and II by Eric Laurent Science and Psychoanalysis by Bruce Fink The Name of the Father by Francois Regnault Transference as Deception by Pierre Gilles Gueguen The Drive I and II by Marie Hele ne Brousse The Demontage of the Drive by Maire Jaanus The Gaze as an Object by Antonio Quinet The Phallic Gaze of Wonderland by Richard Feldstein The Evil Eye of Painting Jacques Lacan and Witold Gombrowicz on the Gaze by Hanjo Berressem Art and the Position of the Analyst by Robert Samuels The Relation between Voice and the Gaze by Ellie Ragland The Lamella of David Lynch by Slavoj Zizek The Real Cause of Repetition by Bruce Fink Introductory Talk at Sainte Anne Hospital by Jacques Alain Miller and The End of Analysis I and II by Anne Dunand

The Seminar of Jacques Lacan: The four fundamental concepts of psychoanalysis Jacques Lacan, 1988 Jacques Lacan's writings and the seminars for which he has become famous offer a radical reappraisal of the work of Freud Focusing on psychological concepts developed by Freud Lacan argues for a structural affinity between psychoanalysis and language discusses the relation of psychoanalysis to religion and reveals his particular stance on a number of related topics

Erratum of The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-Analysis Jacques Lacan, Jacques-Alain Miller, Alan Sheridan, 2011-02 Dr Lacan's writings and especially the seminars for which he has become famous have provoked intense controversies in French analytic circles requiring as they do a radical reappraisal of the legacy bequeathed by Freud The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho Analysis is based on a year's seminar which is of particular importance because he was addressing a larger less specialized audience than ever before among whom he could not assume familiarity with his work For his listeners then and for his readers now he wanted to introduce a certain coherence into the major concepts on which psycho analysis is based namely the unconscious repetition the transference and the drive This particular seminar in this particular edition has often been used as the basic text for Anglo American scholars and students alike seduced by the possibilities inherent in Lacanian psycho analysis In particular notions of the gaze and ruminations on the role of subjectivity in two dimensional representations have been adopted wholesale by spheres of film studies art history and visual studies By default Alan Sheridan through this translation has been key in the reception of Lacan in the Anglo American academy Alas particularly for visual studies a key phrase in this edition differs significantly from the French edition An internet search proves that both versions of this phrase have been quoted equally in North American scholarly writings While arguments could be made as to the apt ness of continuing to use Sheridan s translation as it exists and we at Parasitic Ventures Press considered the possibility of presenting one such we offer instead this edition an Erratum of The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho Analysis to allow our readers to decide for themselves The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-analysis Jacques Lacan,1981 Probes the relationship between psychoanalysis and science and religion as well as defining the unconscious the repetition the transference and the drive as the underlying concepts of psycho analysis The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-analysis Jacques Lacan,1994 The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-analysis Jacques Alain Miller,1979 Lacan's Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis Roberto Harari,2020-09-08 The informal tone of these ten lectures by Roberto Harari reflects their original character as classes held at El Centro de Extension Psicoanalitica del Centro Cultural General San Martin Buenos Aires Destined for a wider audience than just the psychoanalytical camp Harari s work presents the Lacanian endeavor without presupposition of specialized knowledge and yet without conceding intellectual subtlety Harari provides an introductory display of essential themes developed in Lacan s Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis and offers his own insightful reading of the text s central ideas These ten classes sparked by the crucial Seminar XI within the teaching of Lacan reframe a wide range of questions in psychoanalysis for the professional in the field scholars and students across disciplines and interested lay readers Harari is so at ease with Lacan s oeuvre that he can dismantle and rebuild its structure so that order and logic suddenly appear inherent to Lacan s way of thinking The unconscious transference repetition and the drive are here reintroduced not only to do justice to Freud s insights but also to link these concepts to the larger question of the complex relationships between psychoanalysis religion and science Harari s didactic approach and his analytic style come together to bring us one step closer to understanding Lacan and one step closer to understanding ourselves Lacan's Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis Roberto Harari,2004-10-15 The informal tone of these ten lectures by Roberto Harari reflects their original character as classes held at El Centro de Extension Psicoanalitica del Centro Cultural General San Martin Buenos Aires Destined for a wider audience than just the psychoanalytical camp Harari s work presents the Lacanian endeavor without presupposition of specialized knowledge and yet without conceding intellectual subtlety Harari provides an introductory display of essential themes developed in Lacan's Four Fundamental Concepts of Psychoanalysis and offers his own insightful reading of the text's central ideas. These ten classes sparked by the crucial Seminar XI within the teaching of Lacan reframe a wide range of questions in psychoanalysis for the professional in the field, scholars and students across disciplines and interested lay readers. Harari is so at ease with Lacan's oeuvre that he can dismantle and rebuild its structure so that order and logic suddenly appear inherent to Lacan's way of thinking. The unconscious, transference, repetition and the drive are here reintroduced not only to do justice to Freud's insights but also to link these concepts to the larger question of the complex relationships between psychoanalysis, religion and science. Harari's didactic approach and his analytic style come together to bring us one step closer to understanding Lacan and one step closer to understanding ourselves. The Four Fundamental Concepts of Psycho-analysis Jacques Lacan, 1977
