The authors are to be congratulated for making accessible those research contributions which have the potential to make a meaningful difference to the practice of family business. Jill Thomas, The University of Adelaide Business School, Australia. I highly recommend the annotated bibliography by De Massis, Sharma, Chua, and Chrisman to experienced scholars as well as to incoming researchers. The authors selected carefully and in a transparent manner relevant papers and summarized them in a way that provides a helpful basis for future research. Well done! Sabine B. Rau, WHU Otto Beisheim School of Management, Germany. A welcome addition to the field of family business studies. Importantly, the first three chapters offer critical commentary and synthesis that go well beyond what one typically finds in an annotated bibliography. Overall, this book offers a solid foundation for moving the study of family business forward. Lloyd Steier, University of Alberta, Canada. If I had been asked to suggest the currently most needed editorial endeavor for advancing family business studies, I would have answered with no hesitation: an up-to-date annotated bibliography.
