Smart Love Parent The Compassionate Alternative To Discipline:

The Smart Love Parent Martha Heineman Pieper, William Joseph Pieper, 2005 Should you feed your baby whenever she wants or put her on a schedule Do you impose consequences on children who don't do their homework or clean up their room or do you help them with chores and homework Should you respond to the difficult adolescent with tender love or tough love Parents are faced every day with a multitude of decisions and they worry about making the right choices The Smart Love Parent offers a breakthrough method to parenting created and tested by the husband and wife team of Dr Martha Heineman Pieper and Dr William J Pieper The Piepers offer a new understanding of the entire sweep of child development allowing you to view the process of growing up through your child's eyes Their patient and caring approach avoids the extremes of permissiveness and of the old reward and punishment style of parenting that turns parents into disciplinarians By offering a relaxed and realistic timetable for your child's development they identify some previously unrecognized developmental milestones and show you how to help your child reach them through guiding not punishing If you understand your child's point of view you can better know how to love her and how to respond to her actions The Smart Love Parent helps parents cultivate a child's inner happiness which is the best means of ensuring your child will grow up well behaved responsible self confident and able to reach his or her fullest potential Book jacket Smart Love Martha Heineman Pieper, 2001-05-01

Smart Love shows how putting a child's inner happiness first not his outward behavior actually will make him a better behaved and in the long run more confident and responsible The Go-To Mom's Parents' Guide to Emotion Coaching Young Children Kimberley Blaine, 2010-07-15 From the producer of the popular on line The Go To Mom TV comes a handy guide filled with practical tips that reject old fashioned discipline and instead use empathy and emotion coaching a more effective open hearted method of support and positive change Blaine shows how to put in place life changing solutions and access previously untapped resources This book is written for parents who struggle to solve the day to day problems of raising kids She offers emotion coaching solutions for dealing with tantrums nightmares hitting bedtime whining bedwetting potty training shyness and anger Pedagogies of Punishment Winston C. Thompson, John Tillson, 2023-05-18 Written by interdisciplinary authors from the fields of educational policy early childhood education history political philosophy law and moral philosophy this volume addresses the use of disciplinary action across varied educational contexts Much of the punishment of children occurs in non criminal contexts in educational and social settings and schools are institutions where young people are subject to disciplinary practices and justifications that are quite unlike those found elsewhere In addition to this the discipline they receive is often discriminatory being disproportionately focused on students of colour and other minoritized identities and unjust in other ways This timely text is a comprehensive examination of punishment in schools prompting discussions on racial equity social justice in education and the school to prison pipeline Each chapter offers empirically informed theoretical investigations into punishment in educational settings including how punishment is understood whether it is permissible to discipline students and whether such punishment can be considered educational involved in each discipline or in dual degree programs A Is for Arson Campbell F. Scribner, 2023-07-15 In A Is for Arson Campbell F Scribner sifts through two centuries of debris to uncover the conditions that have prompted school vandalism and to explain why attempts at prevention have inevitably failed Vandalism costs taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars every year as students parents and even teachers wreak havoc on school buildings Why do they do it Can anything stop them Who should pay for the damage Underlying these questions are long standing tensions between freedom and authority and between wantonness and reason Property destruction is not simply a moral failing to be addressed with harsher punishments nor can the problem be solved through more restrictive architecture or policing Scribner argues that education itself is a source of intractable struggle and that vandalism is often the result of an unruly humanity To understand schooling in the United States one must first confront the all too human emotions that have led to fires broken windows and graffiti A Is for Arson captures those emotions through new historical evidence and diverse theoretical perspectives helping readers understand vandalism variously as a form of political conflict as self education and as sheer chaos By analyzing physical artifacts as well as archival sources Scribner offers new perspectives on children s misbehavior and adults reactions and allows readers to see the complexities of education the built environment of teaching and learning evolving approaches to youth psychology and student discipline through the eyes of its often resistant subjects The Fast-track Course on how to Write a Nonfiction Book Proposal Stephen Blake Mettee, 2002 The hard cold fact about getting a book published is that without something close to divine intervention an author is going to have to write a sales piece called a book proposal that will attract the attention of an editor or an agent In fact at most publishers this sales piece is going to have to hold up under the scrutiny of a committee made up of a bevy of editors and a pod of sales and marketing people With The Fast Track Course on How to Write a Nonfiction Book Proposal Mettee a seasoned book editor and publisher cuts to the chase and provides simple detailed instruction that allows anyone to write a professional book proposal and hear an editor say Yes According to Mettee the first rule is Do no harm Too many authors don t pay enough attention to the small things like spelling and grammar and manuscript format that are needed to make their book proposals appear professional They may have a great idea for a book and be eminently qualified to write it but they schmuck it up with slovenly disregard for the easy stuff The last rule is Be persistent If you quit after your first rejection slip or after the thirteenth or the thirtieth you ll never get published Many books that are rejected scores of times go on to be best sellers You re not defeated until you give up
