Black, bold text provides the minimum requirements needed to comply with the smoke free legislation. Additional green text is for organisations who wish to introduce additional restrictions on smoking, such as removing smoking breaks or adopting smoke free sites.

SMOKING POLICY

Smoking policy for [name of organisation]
Effective from [date]

INTRODUCTION

Second hand smoke is a known health hazard. In 2004, the Government's Scientific Committee on Tobacco and Health reported that the increased risk to non-smokers of lung cancer from exposure to second hand smoke was 24% and the increased risk of heart disease 25%.

In provisions made under the Health Act 2006, all enclosed and substantially enclosed workplaces and public places will be legally required to be smoke free.

The following policy has been adopted by [name of organisation] to take all possible steps to protect employees from second hand smoke exposure and to comply with legislative requirements.

1. THE POLICY

- 1.1 From [date] smoking is prohibited in [name of organisation]'s premises and on the surrounding grounds, including the car park. Smoking is also prohibited in company vehicles used by more than one person, and in private vehicles if a passenger is carried. This applies to employees whether employed directly by [name of organisation], through an agency, by a contractor or other organisation, and visitors [include any other users]. [Specify any outdoor areas provided for smokers if applicable.]
- 1.2 Employees who wish to smoke may do so in their own time during lunch breaks. Employees will not be permitted to smoke whilst carrying out their duties and responsibilities for [name of organisation].
- 1.3 The sale of tobacco will be prohibited in all [name of organisation]'s premises.

2. THE POLICY FOR THIRD PARTY PREMISES

- 2.1 Employees required to visit other premises not covered by smoke free legislation as part of their duties (ie, domestic premises) should advise the visitee when arranging a visit of [name of organisation]'s smoking policy. Although [name of organisation] has a duty of care to protect its employees it cannot control the smoking policy on these premises. Employees should agree that the visitee arrange for a non-smoking area to

Smoking Policy Law Politics And Culture:

Smoking Policy Robert L. Rabin, Stephen D. Sugarman, 1993 Public and governmental attitudes toward tobacco use are dramatically different today when compared to the attitudes of the mid 1960s Smoking then was widely regarded as a mark of sophistication and a natural companion at work and play The accumulating evidence on the serious health risks of smoking to both smokers and nonsmokers has changed those sentiments Now tobacco use is increasingly a target of cultural disapproval both in social circles and in the regulatory arena Smoking Policy Law Politics and Culture examines the interplay between public opinion and governmental action as norms have changed about whether one should smoke and where it is appropriate to do so In this study an interdisciplinary team from law public health communications political science and sociology addresses a wide range of tobacco control issues Topics covered include the politics of smoking control lawsuits by smokers against the tobacco industry the strategies of employers and insurers in discouraging smoking lessons from drug and alcohol control the conversion of smoking from a health issue into a moral issue the enforcement of no smoking rules and the impact of tobacco advertising controls This volume provides a comprehensive exploration of both institutional and informal mechanisms regulating tobacco use in late twentieth century America The contributors assess the roles played by public officials corporations and insurers the scientific public health and medical communities and opinion leaders Smoking Policy is essential reading for policymakers and advocates professionals in law public health and social science fields corporate officials and those generally interested in issues of smoking and public health

Mass Torts in a World of Settlement Richard A. Nagareda, 2008-09-15 The traditional definition of torts involves bizarre idiosyncratic events where a single plaintiff with a physical impairment sues the specific defendant he believes to have wrongfully caused that malady Yet public attention has focused increasingly on mass personal injury lawsuits over asbestos cigarettes guns the diet drug fen phen breast implants and most recently Vioxx Richard A Nagareda's Mass Torts in a World of Settlement is the first attempt to analyze the lawyer's role in this world of high stakes multibillion dollar litigation These mass settlements Nagareda argues have transformed the legal system so acutely that rival teams of lawyers operate as sophisticated governing powers rather than litigators His controversial solution is the replacement of the existing tort system with a private administrative framework to address both current and future claims This book is a must read for concerned citizens policymakers lawyers investors and executives grappling with the changing face of mass torts

Public Opinion, Public Policy, and Smoking Thomas R. Marshall, 2016-07-25 Public Opinion Public Policy and Smoking tracks Americans changing attitudes about cigarette smoking over the last century With data from more than five thousand public and privately conducted polls this book carefully examines how Americans came to understand the health risks of smoking how the tobacco industry sought to reframe smoking and how public opinion support for tobacco control affected lawsuits elections and public policies This book tests several well known linkage models that connect public opinion with public policy It shows that conventional wisdom about public opinion and tobacco control policy is often mistaken This book offers the first in depth look at American public opinion and cigarette smoking during the last century      Regulating Tobacco Robert L. Rabin, Stephen D. Sugarman, 2001 The essays in this text analyse specific strategies used to influence tobacco use including taxation regulation of advertising and promotion regulation of indoor smoking sets them against the latest scientific findings about tobacco use

Regulating Tobacco, Alcohol and Unhealthy Foods Tania Voon, Andrew Mitchell, Jonathan Liberman, 2014-07-25 The need to reduce disability and premature deaths from non communicable diseases NCDs is increasingly engaging international organisations and national and sub national governments In this book experts from a range of backgrounds provide insights into the legal implications of regulating tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods all of which are risk factors for NCDs As individual countries and the international community move to increase targeting of these risk factors affected industries are turning to national and international law to challenge the resulting regulations This book explores how the effective regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods can be achieved within the context of international health law international trade and investment law international human rights law international intellectual property law and domestic laws on constitutional and other matters Its contributors consider the various tensions that arise in regulating NCD risk factors as well as offering an original analysis of the relationship between evidence and health regulation Covering a range of geographical areas including the Americas the European Union Africa and Oceania the book offers lessons for health and policy practitioners and scholars in navigating the complex legal fields in which the regulation of tobacco alcohol and unhealthy foods takes place      Psychology of Learning and Motivation , 2009-02-09 This volume presents a variety of perspectives from within and outside moral psychology Recently there has been an explosion of research in moral psychology but it is one of the subfields most in need of bridge building both within and across areas Interests in moral phenomena have spawned several separate lines of research that appear to address similar concerns from a variety of perspectives The contributions to this volume examine key theoretical and empirical issues these perspectives share that connect these issues with the broader base of theory and research in social and cognitive psychology The first two chapters discuss the role of mental representation in moral judgment and reasoning Sloman Fernbach and Ewing argue that causal models are the canonical representational medium underlying moral reasoning and Mikhail offers an account that makes use of linguistic structures and implicates legal concepts Bilz and Nadler follow with a discussion of the ways in which laws which are typically construed in terms of affecting behavior exert an influence on moral attitudes cognition and emotions Baron and Ritov follow with a discussion of how people s moral cognition is often driven by law like rules that forbid actions and suggest that value driven judgment is relatively less concerned by the consequences of those actions than some normative standards would prescribe Iliev et al argue that moral cognition makes use of both rules and consequences and review a number of laboratory studies that suggest that values influence what captures our attention and that attention is a powerful determinant of judgment and preference Ginges follows with a discussion of how these value related processes influence cognition and behavior outside the laboratory in high stakes real world conflicts Two subsequent chapters discuss further building blocks of moral cognition Lapsley and Narvaez discuss the development of moral characters in children and Reyna and Casillas offer a memory based account of moral reasoning backed up by developmental evidence Their theoretical framework is also very relevant to the phenomena discussed in the Sloman et al Baron and Ritov and Iliev et al chapters The final three chapters are centrally focused on the interplay of hot and cold cognition They examine the relationship between recent empirical findings in moral psychology and accounts that rely on concepts and distinctions borrowed from normative ethics and decision theory Connolly and Hardman focus on bridge building between contemporary discussions in the judgment and decision making and moral judgment literatures offering several useful methodological and theoretical critiques Ditto Pizarro and Tannenbaum argue that some forms of moral judgment that appear objective and absolute on the surface are at bottom more about motivated reasoning in service of some desired conclusion Finally Bauman and Skitka argue that moral relevance is in the eye of the perceiver and emphasize an empirical approach to identifying whether people perceive a given judgment as moral or non moral They describe a number of behavioral implications of people's reported perception that a judgment or choice is a moral one and in doing so they suggest that the way in which researchers carve out the moral domain a priori might be dubious

The New Politics of State Health Policy Robert B. Hackey, David A. Rochefort, 2001 State governments in the past decade have had to take on the problem of health care with mixed results This collection of 11 essays of which two are an introduction and conclusion by academics and policy makers consider the many issues that concern health care in the US and their effects at the state level including managed care health insurance expansion mental health care public health administration and bureaucratic reactions to health policy Hackey teaches health policy and management at Providence College in Rhode Island Rochefort teaches political science and public administration at Northeastern U in Boston c Book News Inc

Civil Liability Portions of the Proposed Tobacco Settlement United States. Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary, 1999 Risk Regulation in the United States and European Union A. Luedtke, L. Svedin, Thad E. Hall, 2010-06-07 Globalization and technology have altered public fears and changed expectations of how government should make people safer This book analyzes how Europeans and Americans perceive and regulate risk The authors show how public fears about risk are filtered through political systems to pressure governments to insure against risk

The Smoking Puzzle Frank A. Sloan, Vincent Kerry Smith, Donald H. Taylor, 2003 The authors find that smokers tend to be overly optimistic about longevity and future health if they quit later in life Smokers over 50 revise their perceptions only after a major health shock If smokers are informed of long term consequences and are told that quitting can come too late they are able to evaluate the risks more accurately

Alcohol, Tobacco and Obesity Kirsten Bell, Amy Salmon, Darlene McNaughton, 2012-03-29 Although drinking smoking and obesity have attracted social and moral condemnation to varying degrees for more than two hundred years over the past few decades they have come under intense attack from the field of public health as an unholy trinity of lifestyle behaviours with apparently devastating medical social and economic consequences Indeed we appear to be in the midst of an important historical moment in which policies and practices that would have been unthinkable a decade ago e g outdoor smoking bans incarcerating pregnant women for drinking alcohol and prohibiting restaurants from serving food to fat people have become acceptable responses to the risks that alcohol tobacco and obesity are perceived to pose Hailing from Canada Australia the United Kingdom and the USA and drawing on examples from all four countries contributors interrogate the ways in which alcohol tobacco and fat have come to be constructed as problems requiring intervention and expose the social cultural and political roots of the current public health obsession with lifestyle No prior collection has set out to provide an in depth examination of alcohol tobacco and obesity through the comparative approach taken in this volume This book therefore represents an invaluable and timely contribution to critical studies of public health health inequities health policy and the sociology of risk more broadly

Frontiers in Health Policy Research Alan M. Garber, 2001 This important series presents timely economic research on health care and health policy issues Each volume contains approximately five papers from an annual conference held in Washington D C Topics covered include the effects of health policy reforms changes in health care organization and management measurement of health outcomes health care output and productivity the role of health related behavior health and aging health and children and health care financing Contributors Amber E Barnato Ernst Berndt Susan Busch Richard Frank Alan M Garber James Hughes Christopher R Kagay Darius Lakdawalla Mark C McClellan Michael Moore Tomas Philipson Gabriel Picone Frank Sloan      Globalizing Tobacco Control Roddey Reid, 2005-12-20 Reid develops an approach to globalization and health that goes beyond simplistic dichotomies such as the puritanism of the United States in contrast with the more libertine cultures of other countries and he also eschews the equally simplistic view that the world is becoming homogenized David J Hess Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute A tangible aspect of living working and traveling in the 21st century is the experience of moving between smoke filled and smoke free environments In Globalizing Tobacco Control Roddey Reid examines what lies behind this experience the revolution in public attitudes and health codes that regulate daily routines and the life of the body While the gradual replacement of smoking with non smoking as the social norm is a global phenomenon it has not followed the same trajectory everywhere Reid compares anti smoking campaigns in the United States France and Japan for what they reveal about the nature of globalization and liberal arts of government He explores distinctive national histories of tobacco evolving global marketing strategies of transnational tobacco corporations social marketing techniques used to tailor public health messages to particular ethnic communities and the programs of international public health organizations      Contemplating Courts Lee Epstein, 1995-01-01 Seventeen thought provoking essays in this sophisticated yet accessible reader demonstrate how political scientists conduct research on law courts and the judicial process and at the same time answer interesting substantive questions Illustrating the breadth and depth of judicial politics studies the essays convey to students the array of contemporary thinking both theoretical and methodological at work in the field The book s five parts cover subjects taught in most judicial politics courses Because each chapter stands alone instructors have the flexibility of assigning less than the whole book or chapters in a different order Topics examined range from information used by voters electing judges to the credibility of victims of sexualized violence Accessible to both undergraduate and graduate students Contemplating Courts offers fascinating views into both the law and courts field and the research process itself Epstein provides in the first chapter an overview of the key elements of judicial process research and defines key terms Technical notes and methodology appendices offer students additional guidance

The Cigarette Century Allan M. Brandt, 2009-01-06 The invention of mass marketing led to cigarettes being emblazoned in advertising and film deeply tied to modern notions of glamour and sex appeal It is hard to find a photo of Humphrey Bogart or Lauren Bacall without a cigarette No product has been so heavily promoted or has become so deeply entrenched in American consciousness And no product has received such sustained scientific scrutiny The development of new medical knowledge demonstrating the dire harms of smoking ultimately shaped the evolution of evidence based medicine In response the tobacco industry engineered a campaign of scientific disinformation seeking to delay disrupt and suppress these studies Using a massive archive of previously secret documents historian Allan Brandt shows how the industry pioneered these campaigns particularly using special interest lobbying and largesse to elude regulation But even as the cultural dominance of the cigarette has waned and consumption has fallen dramatically in the U S Big Tobacco remains securely positioned to expand into new global markets The implications for the future are vast 100 million people died of smoking related diseases in the 20th century in the next 100 years we expect 1 billion deaths worldwide

The Tobacco Challenge Geraint Howells, 2016-02-17 Addressing three central questions of legal policy this is an interesting and comprehensive analysis of the need to control and regulate tobacco consumption The core issues of the book are litigation vs regulation with a comparative analysis of the US and European approaches the challenge to regulate tobacco as a lawful product within constitutional limits to promote the reduction of risks to health and the extent to which consumers should be entrusted with information to make their own informed choices Suggesting dialogue and transparency in policy development this book covers advertising psychology ethics economics and health in addition to the central debate about the litigation and regulation of tobacco and the role of consumer protection law and private law

Legal and Political Challenges of Governing the Environment and Climate Change Gary Wickham, Jo-Ann Goodie, 2013-11-26 The environment has not always been protected by law It was not until the middle of the 20th century that the environment came to be understood as an entity in need of special care and the law politics duo firmly fixed its focus on this issue In this book Wickham and Goodie tell the story of how law and politics first came upon the environment as an object in need of special attention They outline the unlikely intersection of aesthetics and science that made the environment into the matter of great concern it is today The book describes the way private common law strategies and public law legislative strategies have approached the task of protecting the environment and explore the greatest environmental challenge to have so far confronted environmental law and politics the threat of global climate change The book offers descriptions of many of the strategies being deployed to meet this challenge and present some troubling assessments of them The book will be of great interest to students teachers and researchers of environmental law socio legal studies environmental studies and political theory

Non-Discrimination Law: Comparative Perspectives Peter R. Rodrigues, Titia Loenen, 2023-09-20 This collection which stems from the International Conference on Comparative Non Discrimination Law held at Utrecht The Netherlands in June 1998 covers both the general aspects of equality and non discrimination law Part I as well as the specific grounds for discrimination adverse impact or indirect discrimination and affirmative action Part II Part III discusses diverse aspects of the enforcement of non discrimination law Part IV contains conclusions and an agenda for change This book is unique in that it both provides a comparative view of anti discrimination law in theory and practice and looks at a wide range of grounds for discrimination such as gender race religion and health Its comparative and international approach renders this publication not only of interest to civil rights lawyers but to all those engaged in human rights and comparative law

Reducing Tobacco Use, 2000 Extensive report covering the history of tobacco use in the U S and the various attempts to regulate its use advertising minors access and the like
