The Writing Experiment Hazel Smith,2020-07-16 A systematic and engaging approach to creative writing Carla Harryman Wayne State University By suggesting that students who are not born poets can yet learn to become good ones Smith performs a very important service Professor Susan M Schultz University of Hawaii This is an impressive book because it covers areas of creative writing practice and theory that have not been covered in published form It links radical practice with radical but better known theory and will appeal to anyone looking for a different approach Robert Sheppard Edge Hill College of Higher Education UK The Writing Experiment demystifies the process of creative writing showing that successful work does not arise from talent or inspiration alone Hazel Smith breaks down writing into incremental stages revealing processes that are often unconscious or unacknowledged and shows how they can become part of a systematic writing strategy The book encourages writers to take an explorative and experimental approach to their work It relates practical strategies for writing to major twentieth century literary and cultural movements including postmodernism Suitable for both beginners and experienced writers The Writing Experiment covers many genres including fiction poetry writing for performance and new media Each chapter is illustrated with extensive examples of both student work and published writing and challenging exercises offer writers at all levels opportunities to develop their skills Literary History and Avant-Garde Poetics in the Antipodes A. J.

Carruthers,2024-03-05 Avant garde poetry in the Antipodes causes all sorts of trouble for literary history It is an avant garde that seems to arrive too late and yet right on time In 1897 Christopher Brennan made his own version of Un Coup de Des the same year Mallarme published it in Cosmopolis In the 1940s the same period avant gardism was declared dead or fatally injured due to the Ern Malley affair Harry Hooton began writing a significant body of experimental poetry From the 1950s to the 1970s Australian Dada emerged belatedly through figures like Jas H Duke Tristan Tzara had previously sung Aboriginal songs at the Cabaret Voltaire in 1916 First Nations and Migrant poets then began reinventing avant garde poetry in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries This book maintains that such a confounding literary history poses a distinct challenge to the theories of the avant gardes we have become accustomed to and changes our perspective of avant garde time

Indigenous Transnationalism Lynda Ng,2018-11-01 After Aboriginal author Alexis Wright s novel Carpentaria won the Miles Franklin Award in 2007 it rapidly achieved the status of a classic The novel is widely read and studied in Australia and overseas and valued for its imaginative power its epic reach and its remarkable use of language Indigenous Transnationalism brings together eight essays by critics from seven different countries each analysing Alexis Wright s novel Carpentaria from a distinct national perspective Taken together these diverse voices highlight themes from the novel that resonate across cultures and continents the primacy of the land the battles that indigenous peoples fight for their language culture and sovereignty a concern with the environment and the effects of pollution At the same time by comparing the Aboriginal experience to that of other indigenous peoples they demonstrate the means by which a transnational approach can highlight resistance to or subversion of national prejudices

Feminist Knowledge (RLE Feminist Theory) Sneja Gunew,2013-05-20 The minority feminist viewpoints have often been submerged in the interests of maintaining a mainstream universal model of feminism This anthology takes into account the various differences among women while looking at the important areas of feminist struggle While sisterhood is indeed global it certainly does not mean that all women are required to submerge their specific differences and assimilate to a universal model Consequently the collection includes essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect the political struggles which continue to be waged with different strategies by socialist and radical feminists and the self searching analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain The collection begins with a critique of white mainstream feminism emanating from Aboriginal women in Australia The implications of the critique indicate that there is a pervasive racism within the feminist movement

Australia for Women Susan Hawthorne,Renate Klein,1994 Australia is a land full of opportunities but where can you go to find the things that matter to women This book is a guide to the land as well as the diverse culture of women Women s culture in Australia goes back more than 40 000 years and is a rich mosaic of story art and music On the top of this has come the culture of the past 200 years from the British convicts from China from the Pacific from the newer waves of migration and from the women s movement This is reflected in literature theatre the visual arts music circuses and dance Rural and urban women describe the places they know and love they also describe their histories and show something of what lies behind a first impression Contributors featured include Oodgeroo Noonuccal Faith Bandler Portia Robinson Elizabeth Jolley Sara Dowse Janine Haines Dale Spender Ruby Langford Ginibi Kate Llewellyn and Finola Moorhead A Companion to Australian Literature Since 1900 Nicholas Birns, Rebecca McNeer, 2007 A fresh twenty first century look at Australian literature in a broad inclusive and multicultural sense Telling Ways Anna Couani, Sneja Marina Gunew, 1988 Telling Ways Australian women s experimental writing was an occasional publication of Australian Feminist Studies the journal published by the Research Centre for Women s Studies at the University of Adelaide These papers comprise typescripts photocopies and computer printouts of pieces of experimental writing selected for publication Some are in draft form and many are annotated and or corrected The file was deposited in the Library by Professors Susan Sheridan and Susan Magarey in July 2006 The Routledge Companion to Australian Literature Jessica Gildersleeve, 2020-12-22 In recent years Australian literature has experienced a revival of interest both domestically and internationally The increasing prominence of work by writers like Christos Tsiolkas heightened through television and film adaptation as well as the award of major international prizes to writers like Richard Flanagan and the development of new high profile prizes like the Stella Prize have all reinvigorated interest in Australian literature both at home and abroad This Companion emerges as a part of that reinvigoration considering anew the history and development of Australian literature and its key themes as well as tracing the transition of the field through those critical debates It considers works of Australian literature on their own terms as well as positioning them in their critical and historical context and their ethical and interactive position in the public and private spheres With an emphasis on literature s responsibilities this book claims Australian literary studies as a field uniquely positioned to expose the ways in which literature engages with produces and is produced by its context provoking a critical re evaluation of the concept of the relationship between national literatures cultures and histories and the social function of literary texts Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research

Current Trends in Narratology Greta Olson, 2011 Current Trends in Narratology offers an overview of cutting edge approaches to theories of storytelling It describes the move to cognition the new emphasis on non prose and multimedia narratives and introduces a third field of research comparative narratology This research addresses how local institutions and national approaches have affected the development of narratology Leading researchers detail their newest scholarship while placing it within the scope of larger international trends

Australian Made Sonia Mycak, Amit Sarwal, 2018-08-30 Australian Made is a collection of essays about the writers the readers and the texts of multicultural Australia Presenting the work of critics and scholars from both Australia and abroad this collection creates a synergy between local and international perspectives as it explores what it means for a writer or a reader to be Australian and a text to be Australian made

A Bibliography of Australian Multicultural Writers Sneja Marina Gunew, 1992 Bibliographic details of Australian multicultural writers

Feminist Knowledge Sneja Gunew, 2012-10-11 This collection contains essays by leaders in the field of post structuralist enquiry as well as by those immersed in the new spirituality and the social consequences of recent biological research Other essays reflect political struggles being waged with different strategies by radical feminists and the analyses undertaken by feminists uneasy about their inclusion within educational institutions and the radical new interpretations of sexuality within the cultural domain
