In the Shadow of the Mahatma Susan Billington Harper, 2019-06-04 This is a biography of Vedanayagam Samuel Azariah 1874 1945 bishop of the Anglican Church in India from 1912 until his death in 1945 His life sheds new light on the challenges and opportunities faced by religious minorities throughout the world today As a Christian leader in a non Christian culture he negotiated complex cultural social political and economic pressure with exceptional skill and diplomacy As the first Indian bishop of an Anglican diocese and as modern India s most successful leader of depressed class and non Brahmin conversion movements to Christianity Azariah was equally at home with the untouchables of rural India and the unreachables of the British Empire From this platform Azariah inevitably came into contact and ironically also into conflict with the dominating presence of Mahatma Gandhi Susan Billington Harper here reconstructs major events and issues of Azariah s public life including a previously unstudied controversy with Gandhi over the issue of conversion and religious freedom in the 1930s Based on hitherto untapped primary sources including diocesan records and vernacular oral histories expressed in both stories and songs this fascinating volume not only provides the first critical study of Bishop Azariah s life but also offers important at times challenging insights for those interested in modern India and the place of Christianity within it The Origins of Modern Historiography in India R. Carman,Chilkuri Vasantha Rao,2014-12-03 This book revisits South Indian Christian communities that were studied in 1959 and written about in Village Christians and Hindu Culture 1968 In 1959 the future of these village congregations was uncertain Would they grow through conversions or slowly dissolve into the larger Hindu society around them John Carman and Chilkuri Vasantha Rao's carefully gathered research fifty years later reveals both the decline of many older congregations and the surprising emergence of new Pentecostal and Baptist churches that emphasize the healing power of Christ Significantly the new congregations largely cut across caste lines including both high castes and outcastes Dalits Carman and Vasantha Rao pay particular attention to the social political and religious environment of these Indian village Christians including their adaptation of indigenous Hindu practices into their Christian faith and observances
