The Missions of Northern Sonora Buford L. Pickens, 2022-04-05 The Spanish missions founded by Padre Eusebio Kino in Sonora Mexico during the 1690s and early 1700s are historical as well as architectural marvels Once self supporting villages with central churches the missions stand today as monuments to perseverance in the face of a hostile New World These Kino Missions were surveyed in 1935 by the National Park Service to prepare for the restoration of the mission at Tumacacori Arizona then a National Historic Monument That report which was never published provided insights into the missions history and architecture that remain of lasting relevance Perhaps more important it documented these structures in photographs and drawings the latter including floor plans and sketches of architectural detail that today are of historic as well as aesthetic interest This volume reproduces that 1935 report in its entirety focusing on sixteen missions and including two maps 52 drawings and 76 photographs With a new introduction and appendixes that place the original study in context The Missions of Northern Sonora is an invaluable reference for scholars and mission visitors alike Mission San Xavier Del Bac Yvonne Lange, 2004-11 A guide to the iconography of San Xavier Mission identifies devotional representations and determines the organizational concepts underlying their placements in the Spanish mission church south of Tucson Arizona examining the sculpture on the facade and inside along with furnishings such as altars and altarpieces and their accompanying imagery and paintings in fresco and on canvas

Beliefs and Holy Places James S. Griffith, 2015-10-20 The region once known as Pimer a Alta now southern Arizona and northern Sonora has for more than three centuries been a melting pot for the beliefs of native Tohono O odham and immigrant Yaquis and those of colonizing Spaniards and Mexicans One need look no further than the roadside crosses along desert highways or the diversity of local celebrations to sense the richness of this cultural commingling Folklorist Jim Griffith has lived in the Pimer a Alta for more than thirty years visiting its holy places and attending its fiestas and has uncovered a background of belief tradition and history lying beneath the surface of these cultural expressions In Beliefs and Holy Places he reveals some of the supernaturally sanctioned relationships that tie people to places within that region describing the cultural and religious meanings of locations and showing how bonds between people and places have in turn created relationships between places a spiritual geography undetectable on physical maps Throughout the book Griffith shows how culture moves from legend to art to belief to practice all the while serving as a dynamic link between past and future Now as the desert gives way to newcomers Griffith s book offers visitors and residents alike a rare opportunity to share in these rich traditions A Guide to Historic Missions and Church[e]s of the Arizona-Sonora Borderlands Richard J. Morgan, 1995 A comprehensive guide to the missions constructed by Jesuits and Franciscans in a region colonized by Spain and since divided between the United States and Mexico provides an historical synopsis of the period a description of the physical and cultural characters of the region at the time of the missionaries arrival and an explanation of the architectural features incorporated into the construction of their missions and churches
