We expect to see the day when each one a house of the Lord each one a hill in the mountains of the Lord each one a sacred sanctuary to which Israel and the families shall gather to receive the blessings of Abraham Isaac and Jacob Perhaps they will number in the hundreds or even in the thousands before the Lord returns

Spiritual Temples Andrew Weeks,2008-03 It is appropriate for us Latterday Saints to desire spiritual experiences if we want them for the right reasons The Prophet Joseph Smith demonstrated this when at the dedication of the Kirtland Temple he prayed let thy house be filled with a mighty rushing wind with thy glory Joseph specifically asked for a heavenly experience Of course his faith had waxed strong in the Lord but then again shouldn't ours So writes Andrew S Weeks in Spiritual Temples Heavenly Experiences in the Houses of God a thought provoking inspiring book that is also studiously and reverently researched Weeks writes about the history of temple worship and its restoration in the latter days which sparked a stream of heavenly manifestations given to prophets and other faithful saints fulfilling the Lord's words that temples are consecrated for obtaining revelations Present day temple building the future of temple work and worthiness are also discussed I will appear unto my servants and speak unto them with mine own voice the Lord promised if my people will keep my commandments and do not pollute this holy house Spiritual Temples supports the premise that whether through inspiration or direct manifestation heavenly experiences are available to temple visitors today Bound for Canaan (Revised & Expanded) Margaret Blair Young,Darius Aidan Gray,2013-05 Book two of the Standing on the Promises trilogy

Vern Watson,2024-08-14 A number of years ago in 2017 my wife Denise and I celebrated our fiftieth wedding anniversary Unlike many folks we didn't go to Hawaii or on a European trip or anything like that For one reason we couldn't make plans well in advance Though it was a milestone that few make in life we had family obligations that for us outweighed our celebration Denise's mother was ill and my mother was already in hospice care We had no way of knowing how long that was going to last so we just lived our lives a day at a time as we always have They were both among the most important people on this earth to us along with our children We couldn't make plans to leave them behind and celebrate and so we didn't Then a little more than two weeks before our fiftieth wedding anniversary my mother passed and our kids began to encourage us to go somewhere special We gave it thought and Denise's family reunion was going to be right at the time we would be gone on our excursion if we left for our anniversary So we waited until the day of the family reunion of my wife Denise before deciding where we were going with no reservations made With I believe inspiration from above we made our plan and left the day after Denise's family reunion We were going to return to all the sights where we lived worked learned and grew together over the years of our marriage Our children helped us make reservations while we were still at the family reunion We were headed for Greenville South Carolina to go back to the courthouse where we were married fifty years ago to see where we started and where the journey had begun After arriving that night we stayed just above the South Carolina line in North Carolina The next morning we headed for Greenville and then we went on down to Clemson University in Clemson South Carolina and watched the total eclipse of the sun It was an amazing sight to see and so fitting for our journey together That was August 21 2017 When we returned home I wanted to go back to where I had grown up as a child and we went to a church on Fourteenth Street in Detroit for the services there When we left the parking lot that day I came up to the traffic light and looked across the street and in the distance I saw Michigan Central Station It was where I started this journey when I arrived in the state of Michigan when I was five years old and homeless I decided as I looked at that site this is my life and this will be my book It is an amazing story and must be told It is against the odds The Salt Lake Temple

Scott D. Marianno, Assistant Academic Vice President Reid L. Neilson, 2025-08-08 Marianno and Neilson share the history of the temple located at the center of the headquarters for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah, from the time church president Brigham Young declared its precise spot in 1847 to the twenty-first century. Beyond its forty years of construction, readers will learn how the temple shaped and influenced the development of the church into a global faith and its contemporary significance as an icon and symbol for Latter-day Saints. Feeding the Flock Terryl L. Givens, 2017-06-01 Feeding the Flock, the second volume of Terryl L. Givens's landmark study of the foundations of Mormon thought and practice, traces the essential contours of Mormon practice as it developed from Joseph Smith to the present. Despite the stigmatizing fascination with its social innovations, polygamy, communalism, its stark supernaturalism, angels, gold plates, and seer stones, and its most esoteric aspects, a New World Garden of Eden, sacred undergarments, as well as its long-standing outlier status among American Protestants, Givens reminds us that Mormonism remains the most enduring and thriving product of the nineteenth century's religious upheavals and innovations. Because Mormonism is founded on a radically unconventional cosmology based on unusual doctrines of human nature, deity, and soteriology, a history of its development cannot use conventional theological categories. Givens has structured these volumes in a way that recognizes the implicit logic of Mormon thought. The first book, Wrestling the Angel, centered on the theoretical foundations of Mormon thought and doctrine regarding God, humans, and salvation. Feeding the Flock considers Mormon practice, the authority of the institution of the church, and its priesthood forms of worship and the function and nature of spiritual gifts in the church's history, revealing that Mormonism is still a tradition very much in the process of formation. At once original and provocative, engaging and learned, Givens offers the most sustained account of Mormon thought and practice yet written. Excavating Mormon Pasts Newell C. Bringhurst, Lavina Fielding Anderson, 2004-08-31 Winner of the Special Book Award from the John Whitmer Historical Association, Excavating Mormon Pasts assembles sixteen knowledgeable scholars from both LDS and the Community of Christ traditions who have long participated skillfully in this dialogue. It presents their insightful and sometimes incisive surveys of where the New Mormon History has come from and which fields remain unexplored. It is both a vital reference work and a stimulating picture of the New Mormon History in the early twenty-first century. Millennium 3 Christopher D. Corran, 2015-03-03 Front Matter Millennium 3 Trilogy eBook A work of Religious Historical Fiction beginning at 2010 and covering the next Thousand Years. This Doctrine is based upon the tenet of the Mormon Church: the Further Light and Knowledge of the Fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. The action is set beyond the Veil of Death as seen through the eyes of Eber, a murdered priest who enters the Spirit World. We see the Biblical Millennium of Peace when swords will be turned to ploughshares. But first NOW. This Great War in which billions must die. Dialogue exposes the idolatrous pagan origins of Islam and illustrates the Keys and Powers of the Holy Priesthood. We see the ongoing relationships among the dead. We journey between the Spirit Realms of Dark and Light. We observe the End of the Mortal World and the Fates of Mankind.
