this meeting science is the means to find out about the structure of the physical world of which we are a part not a means to reduce ourselves and our fellow human beings to mere objects of scrutiny and still less a means to attempt the utterly futile exercise of trying to do that to God We have intellectual permission to be open to the notion that God can be trusted and known The material world encourages an open hearted reaching out to something more with a freedom to seek and to be received by what lies beyond the scope of purely impersonal descriptions and attitudes The Gift of Pain Paul

A Disease Apart Tony Gould,2005-09 This fascinating cultural and medical history of leprosy enriches our understanding of a still feared biblical disease It is a condition shrouded for centuries in mystery legend and religious fanaticism Societies the world over have vilified its sufferers by the sheer accident of mycobacterial infection they have been condemned to exile and imprisonment illness itself considered evidence of moral taint Over the last 200 years the story of leprosy has witnessed dramatic reversals in terms of both scientific theory and public opinion In A DISEASE APART Tony Gould traces the history of this compelling period through the lives of individual men and women intrepid doctors researchers and missionaries and a vast spectrum of patients We meet such pioneers of treatment as the Norwegian microbe hunter Armauer Hansen Though Hansen discovered the leprosy bacillus in 1873 the heredity vs contagion debate raged on for decades Meanwhile across the world Belgian Catholic missionary Father Damien became an international celebrity tending to his stricken flock at the Hawaiian settlement of Molokai He contracted the disease himself To the British leprosy posed an imperial danger to their sprawling colonial system In the 1920s Sir Leonard Rogers of the Indian Medical Service found that the ancient Hindu treatment of chaulmoogra oil could be used in an injectable form The Cajun bayou saw the inspiring rise of leprosy s most zealous campaigner of all a patient At Carville Louisiana a Jewish Texan pharmacist named Stanley Stein was transformed by leprosy into an eloquent editor and writer He ultimately became a thorn in the side of the U S Public Health Department and a close friend of Tallulah Bankhead The personalities met on this journey are remarkable and their stories unfold against the backgrounds of Norway Hawaii the Philippines Japan South Africa Canada Nigeria Nepal and Louisiana Although since the 1950s drugs treatments have been able to cure cases caught early and arrest advanced cases leprosy remains a subject mired in ignorance In this superb and enlightened book Tony Gould throws light into the shadows Living on Purpose Tom Sine,Christine Sine,2002-01-01 In this era of life makeovers personal coaches and success oriented mission statements many people are working hard to get it together They re looking for a good life which at its core includes wanting their time to count for something to be meaningful and mindful But as Christine and Tom Sine point out more and more people are missing the best and settling for less Living on Purpose presents a true life changing strategy one rooted in God s greater purposes for our lives not merely our own desires for success The book has a laser focus on God s mission and vocation for each of his children and it shows how staying on his course will lead to the very richest and most fulfilling life Questions for reflection and discussion make Living on Purpose ideal for group use The Sines help readers make the connection between their everyday pursuits and goals and God s will for their lives They show how to draft a personal or family mission statement to reinvent timestyle and lifestyle using relevant examples from the Bible and other writings Packed with inspiring stories and practical how to Living on Purpose leads readers to a more relaxed festive and meaningful life that truly counts for today and eternity Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church Communicator ,2005 The Living Church
