Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination Ross Labrie, 2001 Thomas Merton 1915-1968 was a Roman Catholic priest, a Trappist monk, a social activist, and a poet. Author of the celebrated autobiography The Seven Storey Mountain, Merton has been described as the most important American religious writer of the past hundred years. One of the notable characteristics of Merton's writing, both in poetry and in prose, was his seamless intermingling of religious and Romantic elements, an intermingling that, because of his gifts as a writer and because of his enormous influence, has had the effect of making widespread a distinctive form of religious thought and expression. In Thomas Merton and the Inclusive Imagination, Ross Labrie reveals the breadth of Merton's intellectual reach by taking an original and systematic look at Merton's thought, which is generally regarded as eclectic and unsystematic. In the Dark Before Dawn Thomas Merton, Lynn R. Szabo, 2013-08-20 A new broad comprehensive view of the innovative poetry of the late great Trappist monk and religious philosopher Thomas Merton. Poet, Trappist monk, religious philosopher, translator, social critic: the late Thomas Merton was all these things. Until now, no selection from his great body of poetry has afforded a comprehensive view of his varied and largely innovative work. In the Dark Before Dawn: New Selected Poems of Thomas Merton is not only double the size of Merton's earlier Selected Poems (1967); it also arranges his poetry thematically and chronologically so that readers can follow the poet's multifarious interrelated lines of thought as well as his poetic development over the decades, from his college days in the 1930s to his untimely accidental death in Bangkok in 1968 during his personal Eastern pilgrimage. The selections are grouped under eight thematic headings: Geography's Landscapes, Poems from the Monastery, Poems of the Sacred, Songs of Contemplation, History's Voices, Past and Present, Engaging the World, On Being Human, Merton and Other Languages. The Crazies Amy Gamerman, 2025-01-07 This is a story about a fight between neighbors when the folks next door are on the Forbes 400 list and you're the guy fixing an irrigation ditch in a vest mended with duct tape. Big Timber, Montana, is one of the windiest towns in one of the windiest states in the country. Mountain gap winds howl down from the Crazies like a coyote rattling windows in their frames and nudging semi-trucks sideways on Interstate 90. Most locals learn to live with the wind. Rick Jarrett sought his fortune in it. A fifth-generation rancher deep in debt, he didn't much believe in climate change. But like the prospectors who rushed to the Treasure State to mine copper and gold, he believed in his right to make a living off his goddamn land. His decision to erect Crazy Mountain Wind would spark fifteen years of legal tussles pitting him against a Texas oil magnate, a flashy Vegas criminal defense attorney, the heir to the largest privately held company in America, and a former cop committed to conserving and preserving this last best place on earth. As the years dragged on, the battle over Crazy Mountain Wind would devolve into a fight over the values that define us as Americans, pulling in an ever wider cast of characters, including a San Francisco private equity firm, strict constructionist Public Service Commissioners, and a Crow activist determined to regain his tribe's right to climb the mountains they hold sacred. A riotous patchwork portrait of a community of cowboys and billionaires and billionaire cowboys, The Crazies is a heartbreaking story about what it means to be a good neighbor and how to care for a place you love
