Defensio Fidei Nicænae George Bull, 1852     Behold the Man! J. Marc. Merrill, 2013-08-19 The Greek word translated as Socrates is actually a compound that means save from death and power over so the intent of the compound is to point to one who has power over life and death and that one is Christ Harold North Fowler in his introduction to The Apology says that the high moral character and genuine religious faith of Socrates are made abundantly clear throughout this whole discourse. It would seem almost incredible that the Athenian court voted for his condemnation if we did not know the fact. When we keep in mind the true intent of the compound translated as Socrates then we can be certain that it was not the Athenian court that voted for the condemnation and death of this man with a high moral character but rather a multitude of people who were influenced by the members of the Sanhedrin in Jerusalem. BEHOLD THE MAN reveals how inaccurate and misleading English translations have been of ancient Greek literature and the author makes a compelling case for Christ being at the center of THE ILIAD CLASSICAL GREEK DRAMA PLATO AND GREEK LITERATURE FROM HERCULANEUM.

Eurykleia and Her Successors Helen Pournara Karydas, 1998. In Greek literature from Homer to Euripides the Nurse is a central figure of authority but until now no one has attempted a systematic comprehensive study of her. Examining Nurse figures in ancient Greek epic and drama Helen Pournara Karydas focuses on the verbal manifestations of the Nurse's authority: advice, approval, disapproval, directions and orders. She reveals its roots in the models of female hierarchy in early choral lyric performances, demonstrating how the poetics of female paideia in those performances are appropriated and reshaped in the poetics of epic and tragedy.
