discovery that his eight times great grandmother was convicted and executed during the Salem witch trials of 1692 he began to research the biggest story of his life the four hundred year history of his family and of our country's Protestant roots It was a history that dated back to the seventeenth century and the English Puritans and Separatists who fled to North America for an uncertain future His travels took him to the fishing village in England where his earliest ancestors lived and worshipped to the Netherlands where they sought refuge from persecution and to the sites in New England and New York where they were members of colonial villages with legendary names Salem Plymouth and New Amsterdam They were Congregationalists Presbyterians Lutherans and Methodists and they had a surprising connection to the founder of the Mormon Church Griffith's account includes not only the stories of his long forgotten relatives but also of some of their neighbors and colleagues whom history still remembers including Plymouth's great governor William Bradford New Amsterdam's swashbuckling director general Peter Stuyvesant the infamous Salem witch trial judge Colonel John Hathorne and the stouthearted Methodist bishop Francis Asbury

By Faith Alone is a rich history of our country's Protestant heritage It is also one man's journey of more than ten thousand miles and four centuries and it captures his personal desire to understand the courage and faith of his distant family members and to better appreciate how religion and the context of history shape his own life even today
