Tender Mercies Inside The World Of A Child Abuse Investigator:

Tender Mercies Keith N. Richards, 1992 This first person emotional account of a child protection service worker in New York State gives the reader an intimate look at all aspects of handling child abuse cases interviewing parents who have been accused of abusing their children talking to abused children removed from their parents guardianship working with an uncaring system ironically designed with the best of intentions and keeping up with the mounds of paperwork each case generates Lucid and disturbing eloquent and passionate Tender Mercies is a must read Fixing Families Jennifer A. Reich, 2012-12-06 In Fixing Families Jennifer Reich takes us inside Child Protective Services for an in depth look at the entire organization Following families from the beginning of a case to its discharge Reich shows how parents negotiate with the state for custody of their children and how being held accountable to the state affects a family Resources for Early Childhood Hannah Nuba, Michael Searson, Deborah Lovitky Sheiman, 2024-02-02 Published under the auspices of the New York Public Library this expanded reorganized and updated edition of Resources for Early Childhood An Annotated Guide for Educators Librarians Health Care Professionals and Parents 1985 includes new essays by the most important theorists in the early childhood field today Influential classic works as well as recent works are listed and annotated in the new bibliographies Essayists include Marian Wright Edelman on the hardships of America's young families Bettye Caldwell on Educare Lewis Lipsitt on assessment of deficits in children Louise Bates Ames on developmental readiness for schooling Nicholas Anastasiow on oral language development Urie Bronfenbrenner on changes in family life and child care Irving Lazar on education policy Bob McGrath on recorded children's music Michael Lewis on emotional development in preschool children Michael Meyerhoff on toy selection David Elkind on young children in the post modern world Mary Dean Dumais on the kindergarten curriculum Vincent Fontana on child abuse Dorothy Singer on television and children's overall development Lendon Smith on nutrition health AIDS and the environment Edward Zigler on family support programs Stella Chess on temperament Bernard Spodek on choosing appropriate early childhood programs David Weikart on the importance of early childhood education A subject index is included Damned If You Do, Damned If You Don't Anthony McMahon, 2018-12-17 First published in 1998 Anthony McMahon details the accounts of public agency child welfare dealing abused and neglected children and their families and the pressures on child welfare workers Opening up the discussion on the ambiguities whilst dealing with balancing child welfare work whilst dealing with the societal pressure of the non intrusion into family life

Understanding Child Abuse and Neglect Cynthia Crosson-Tower, 2005 A textbook presenting all aspects of child maltreatment symptoms and signs parental motivations the social service system Offers a comprehensive look at child maltreatment incorporating history case vignettes and the author's own experience as a child protection worker ABA Child Law Practice, 1999 Child Sexual Abuse in the Catholic Church Louise I. Gerdes, 2003 Authors offer several perspectives on the nature and scope of the problem of child sexual abuse in the Catholic Church and debate whether the laity of the Catholic Church should have a greater voice in church policy      On the Issues ,1991      Wounded Innocents

Richard Wexler,1995-02 The war against child abuse has become a war against children Every year hundreds of children die thousands more are forced to live with strangers and countless American families are torn apart This is called a child protection system While the problem of child abuse is serious and real journalist Richard Wexler charges that our solutions to the problem have actually made it worse in fact hurting the very children that they were intended to help Wexler reinforces his arguments with horrifying descriptions of children summarily removed from their homes of families shattered because of false reports and of children whose parents are guilty of nothing more than poverty being thrust into the maelstrom of the chaotic foster care program He writes of severely abused children those needing the most help whose cases are ignored because the system diverts scarce resources to trivial or unfounded cases and who are reinjured sometimes fatally after their plight has been called to the attention of authorities Wounded Innocents illustrates how well meaning efforts to help children have gone terribly wrong and how the current child protection system desperately needs to be replaced with one that offers real help and real hope to abused and neglected children      Issues, Advocacy, and Leadership in Early Education Mary A. Jensen,Mary Anne Zeitler Hannibal,2000 This book meets the needs of today s early childhood teachers administrators and community leaders who are seeking to become better acquainted with critical issues in early education and to develop their own advocacy and leadership skills It provides the tools and knowledge necessary for early childhood professionals to advocate for and address the implications of child related policies KEY TOPICS The book s articles and activities involve readers in an investigation of and reflection on issues and advocacy action Readers are presented with various viewpoints that engage their critical thinking skills and expand their advocacy abilities both inside and outside their immediate professional settings Incorporated into the chapters are cases and vignettes discussion questions advocacy and leadership activities advocacy strategy guidelines fact sheets and suggestions for additional resources and further readings MARKET For anyone interested in policy or issues in Early Childhood Education      Psychological Problems, Social Issues, and Law Murray Levine,Leah Wallach,2002 This introductory text introduces a historical and systems perspective to the interaction between the social science community and the law by discussing history due process civil law and much more With unique chapters that introduce the reader to the American legal system and to the relationship between the law and the social sciences the reader will come away from the text with an appreciation of the intimate interrelationships between the field of psychology and law      When Children are Abused Cynthia Crosson-Tower,2002      Exploring Child Welfare Cynthia Crosson-Tower,2001 The new edition of Exploring Child Welfare reflects the author s strong practice perspective and incorporates new developments in welfare reform and child welfare services The text provides a practical and thorough introduction to child welfare and welfare services The author s strength is her ability to connect the underlying theories and systems of child welfare with real life practice experience stemming from over thirty years experience in working with children and families This edition was revised in response to feedback from both students and instructors and includes a new focus on attachment theory and its utilization in child welfare services The chapter on child abuse and neglect is presented earlier in the text since it is often the basis of the need for children s services Material in all chapters has been revised and updated to reflect recent thought and research in the field Child Sexual Abuse Paul A. Winters,1998 Shocking cases involving the sexual violation of children have led to calls for tougher laws to keep child molesters incarcerated Meanwhile statistics suggest that most cases of abuse are perpetrated by family or friends
