

The background of the poster is a painting of a rugged coastline at dusk or dawn. The sky is a deep, dark blue with horizontal cloud bands. The sea is dark and calm. In the foreground, there are dark, jagged rock formations. A small, isolated rock with a single, thin, vertical structure (possibly a lighthouse or a monument) stands out on the left side of the frame. The overall mood is somber and atmospheric.

Emergency in Film, Literature and Art Jonathan Driskell, Marek W. Rutkowski, Andrew Hock Soon Ng, 2025-01-09
Examining film literature and art produced during and after the Malayan Emergency the guerrilla war fought between the Malayan National Liberation Army and the military forces of the British Commonwealth this collection demonstrates how art functions as a record of cultural memory that both reinforces and challenges official histories Beyond that it also brings new understandings of the Malayan Emergency itself and Malaysia's subsequent development as a postcolonial nation The first section of the book focuses on films and writings produced during the period of the Emergency to capture the socio-political circumstances of the time and understand its effect on the people The second section goes on to explore representations of the Emergency generated after the event highlighting how it was reimagined or reevaluated by later artists and what ideological ends they served Offering a comparative methodological approach it investigates works that account for a range of perspectives including British Communist and Malayan Malaysian Bringing together the personal and political within individual and collective histories this collection offers a new understanding of how the Emergency contributed to the formation of postcolonial Malaysia and demonstrates the central role that film literature and art play in the creation of cultural memory A History of the Novel in Ants Carol Hart, 2010-07 Why a history of the novel in ants It makes perfect sense because ants live in an almost exclusively female society And as Ian Watt noted in THE RISE OF THE NOVEL the majority of eighteenth century novels were written by as well as read by women The prevalence of women as readers and authors of fiction has continued to the present day Within their all female society ants have conflicts ants have ambitions and disappointments ants have victories and defeats Inhabiting an underground fortress of winding labyrinthine galleries ants can be gothic or postmodernist as the plot requires For them the above ground world of predators and enemies has a painful realism when it is not violently picaresque Imagine translating Jane Austen into ants your six legged heroine will have not one or two but hundreds of gossiping posturing romantically and socially ambitious sisters all striving to get precedence of one another Or don't bother imagining it for yourself just read A HISTORY OF THE NOVEL IN ANTS Carol Hart is a freelance science writer with a rusty PhD in English Literature She reads a great many novels and she never steps on ants This is her first novel The Encyclopedia of Contemporary American Fiction, 2 Volumes Patrick O'Donnell, Stephen J.
