Teotihuacan Capital De Los Toltecas:

Teotihuacan, capital de los Toltecas Laurette Séjourné,1994 En esta reimpresión del fundamental estudio de la doctora Séjourné sobre Teotihuacan y su historia y sobre las excavaciones que en su ámbito realizó ella misma adquieren nueva significación y relieve las tesis elaboradas por la ilustre antropóloga en torno a la cultura tolteca y al pensamiento huasteco

De Teotihuacán a los Aztecas Miguel León Portilla,1983 Archaeological Researches at Teotihuacan, Mexico Sigvald Linné,2003-03-26 The field data and archaeological analysis of the first controlled excavations of the vast City of the Gods in central Mexico In 1932 the Ethnographical Museum of Sweden sent an archaeological expedition to Mexico under the direction of Sigvald Linné to determine the full extent of this ancient Teotihuacan occupation and to collect exhibit quality artifacts Of an estimated 2 000 plus residential compounds at Teotihuacan only 20 apartment like structures were excavated at the time Yet Linné's work revealed residential patterns that have been confirmed later in other locations Some of the curated objects from the Valley of Mexico and the adjacent state of Puebla are among the most rare and unique artifacts yet found Another important aspect of this research was that with the aid of the Museum of Natural History in Washington Linné's team conducted ethnographic interviews with remnant native Mexican peoples whose culture had not been entirely destroyed by the Conquest thereby collecting and preserving valuable information for later research La población del valle de Teotihuacán: v.1. La población prehispánica.- t.1. v.2. La población colonial Mexico. Dirección de Antropología,1922 Prácticas funerarias en la ciudad de los dioses Linda Manzanilla,1999 Cosmopolitanism in Mexican Visual Culture María Fernández,2014-01-06 Since the colonial era Mexican art has emerged from an ongoing process of negotiation between the local and the global which frequently involves invention synthesis and transformation of diverse discursive and artistic traditions In this pathfinding book María Fernández uses the concept of cosmopolitanism to explore this important aspect of Mexican art in which visual culture and power relations unite the local and the global the national and the international the universal and the particular She argues that in Mexico as in other colonized regions colonization constructed power dynamics and forms of violence that persisted in the independent nation state Accordingly Fernández presents not only the visual qualities of objects but also the discourses ideas desires and practices that are fundamental to the very existence of visual objects Fernández organizes episodes in the history of Mexican art and architecture ranging from the seventeenth century to the end of the twentieth century around the consistent but unacknowledged historical theme of cosmopolitanism allowing readers to discern relationships among various historical periods and works that are new and yet simultaneously dependent on their predecessors She uses case studies of art and architecture produced in response to government commissions to demonstrate that established visual forms and meanings in Mexican art reflect and inform desires expectations memories and ways of being in the world in short that visual culture and cosmopolitanism are fundamental to processes of subjectification and identity La población del Valle de Teotihuacán: v.
