Politics of Identity in Post-Conflict States Éamonn Ó Ciardha, Gabriela Vojvoda, 2015-12-14 Ireland and the Balkans have come to represent divided and re united communities

They both provide effective microcosms of national ethnic political military religious ideological and cultural conflicts in their respective regions and as a result they demonstrate real and imaginary divisions This book will specifically focus on the history politics and literature of Bosnia Herzegovina and Northern Ireland while making comparative reference to some of Europe's other disputed and divided regions Using case studies such as Kosovo and Serbia Lithuania Germany Poland Russia and Belarus Greece and Macedonia it examines space place and border discourse the topography of war and violence post war settlement and reconciliation and the location and negotiation of national ethnic religious political and cultural identities The book will be of particular interest to scholars and students of cultural studies history politics Irish studies Slavonic studies area studies and literary studies

Narrated Communities - Narrated Realities, 2015-05-19 Culture studies try to understand how people assume identities and how they perceive reality In this perspective narration as a basic form of cognitive processing is a fundamental cultural technique Narrations provide the coherence temporal organization and semantic integration that are essential for the development and communication of identity knowledge and orientation in a socio cultural context In essence Anderson's Imagined Communities need to be thought of as Narrated Communities from the beginning Narration is made up by what people think and vice versa narration makes up people's thoughts What is considered fictitious or real no longer separates narratives from an outside they refer to but rather represents different narratives Narration not only constructs notions of what was real in retrospect but also prospectively creates possible worlds even in the supposedly hard sciences as in e.g. the imaginative simulation of physical processes The book's unique interdisciplinary approach shows how the implications of this fundamental insight go far beyond the sphere of literature and carry weight for both scholarly and scientific disciplines

Makings of a Monster Charlie Freeland, Baldur's Gate meets Paradise Lost in this deeply emotional work of literary fantasy Perfect for fans of uh is Machbet a good comp title for a fantasy novel Velimir escaped the mass murder of children He survived in the cold streets of Oligorsk by his will fury and the frightening yet alluring presence of his dreams When his cunning catches the eye of a prominent citizen he gets adopted into better prospects at life Yet all is not as good as it seems The man Velimir calls father is cruel and demands absolute obedience from his family Velimir grows into a peerless warrior and a man every bit as furious as the defiant urchin in the streets His celestial blood beckons beyond mortality But can love survive in a heart caged with steel cast in a merciless world Stakes are high as blood calls to blood and children of wrathful divine blood clash This novel stands at the intersection of classical Shakespearean tragedy dark fantasy mythological epic and psychological realism It draws on the tragic hero archetype while also engaging with the modern fantasy tradition of morally ambiguous characters and bleak complex worlds Its themes of power betrayal and inner conflict connect it to a broad spectrum of literature from Greek tragedy to modern grimdark fantasy Vulnerability commitment and love and hate entwine in a tale that libraries will find packed with depth and wonder It will be easy to highly recommend Makings of a Monster to book clubs and discussion groups seeking fantasy that offers far more depth and insights than most Readers seeking a combination of classic psychological and philosophical reflections about the ultimate impact of violence on a child's life choices and growth process will find Makings of a Monster utterly compelling and nearly impossible to put down D Donovan Senior Reviewer Midwest Book Review

Aging in Slavic Literatures Dagmar Gramshammer-Hohl, 2017-07-15 In Slavic studies aging and old age have thus far been only marginal concerns This volume brings together the scattered research that has been done up to now on aging as represented and narrated in Slavic literatures The essays investigate Bosnian Croatian Serbian Polish Russian Slovak Slovene and Ukrainian representations of age aging in various literary genres and epochs and analyze age as a powerful marker of difference and as constitutive of social relations and personal identity
