Stonewall gay poet to emerge as a major voice in American letters Stories of paradise pageant and fugitive peace course through these pages are lit by Doty's visions of the architecture and artifice of a lush world Exploring the forms of remembering and inventing Doty affirms that from the first loss we preserve by naming Walt Whitman Bathing David Wagoner,1996 When David Wagoner's last collection Through the Forest New and Selected Poems was published Harold Bloom noted that Wagoner's study of American nostalgias is as eloquent and moving as that of James Wright and like Wright's poetry carries on some of the deepest currents in American verse The same could be said of Walt Whitman Bathing in which Wagoner's poems range from the lyric to the satiric the elegiac to the transcendental the autobiographical to the visionary Other comments on Wagoner's earlier works Wagoner has the visual acuity of his loved hawks and a lifelong absorption with living and growing things A lovely wit and a lively intelligence inform these poems Maxine Kumin When Wagoner looks at something he brings it to vivid and immediate life through an extraordinary power with a simple name love He is as formally various as Thomas Hardy as playful as Dickinson as wry as Frost Dave Smith A sharp eyed even gutsy nature poet the deftest and tenderest of love poets Wagoner is a verbal magician capable of surprising sometimes crazy tours de force X J Kennedy Some Jazz a While Miller Williams,1998 Here one of our best loved poets gathers his most representative work from twelve collections and adds some new pieces as well An American original Miller Williams involves the readers emotions and imagination with an effective illusion of plain talk continually rediscovering what is vital and musical in the language we speak and imagine by Bruised Paradise Kevin Stein,1996 Stein's poems reveal the constancy of the American quest for work family and dignity even as they evoke the bruised but still redemptive fruit of human compassion The Ways We Touch Miller Williams,1997 The poems in The Ways We Touch Miller Williams's twelfth volume of poetry range from reminiscences of old love to meditations on the relationship between God and human beings to reflections on English poetry and children's stories Throughout Williams's poems use small scenes from daily life drawing from them ruminations about life itself They may be nostalgic or challenging humorous or full of moral fortitude always Williams speaks with the kind of insight that rises from wisdom and experience Pursuit of a Wound Sydney Lea,2000 Co winner of the prestigious Poets Prize for his collection To the Bone Sydney Lea is known for his mastery of the narrative style and his clear and unwavering vision of the natural world and humanity's place in it His latest work Pursuit of a Wound is marked by this acuity and by his uncanny ear for language as well as his willingness to speak for the unlucky and the dispossessed Delving in equal measure into the flinty northern New England landscape and the exiled souls of ordinary people Pursuit of a Wound moves beyond Lea's previous work to explore new poetic strategies including some that approach prose poetry Combining a free ranging sensibility akin to Whitman's with a keen attention to verse's formal possibilities this collection of twenty eight new poems evokes a beautiful and threatened place and ratifies Lea's status as heir apparent to Robert Frost In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen,2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghen's new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career. Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves, In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghen's enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience, those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves. We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one. Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening, we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether.
