The Florentine Paintings In Holland 1300-1500:

The Florentine Paintings in Holland 1300-1500 H. W. van Os, 1974 Netherlands Quarterly for the History of Art C. Broos, J. P. Filedt, P. Hecht, E. De Jongh, G. Schwartz, E. Taverne, 2014-11-14 A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting: The fourteenth century. v. 1. The St. Cecilia Master and his circle Richard Offner, 2000 The Making of the Magdalen Katherine Ludwig Jansen, 2001-07-02 Best known during the Middle Ages as the prostitute who became a faithful follower of Christ Mary Magdalen was the most beloved female saint after the Virgin Mary Why the Magdalen became so popular what meanings she conveyed and how her story evolved over the centuries are the focus of this compelling exploration of late medieval religious culture Analyzing previously unpublished sermons Katherine Jansen uses the lens of medieval preaching to examine the mendicant friars transformation of Mary Magdalen a shadowy gospel figure into an emblem of action and contemplation a symbol of vanity and lust a model of perfect penance and the embodiment of hope and salvation She draws on diverse historical sources to reveal the laity's devotion to Mary Magdalen which departed significantly from the friars image of the saint signaling a major development in popular religious practice and personal piety Finally the author comprehensively addresses the question of the House of Anjou's alliance with the Magdalen and illuminates the relationship between politics and sanctity in southern France and Italy Jansen shows how perceptions of the Magdalen merged with errors and misunderstandings to shape the social spiritual and political agendas of the later Middle Ages She brings to life the rich complexity of medieval culture which condemned female sexuality and women's preaching and yet popularized the veneration of Mary Magdalen as a former prostitute chosen by Christ to be the apostle of the apostles the first to witness and preach the Good News of the Resurrection A Critical and Historical Corpus of Florentine Painting Richard Offner, 2011 The Fourteenth Century Richard Offner, Klara Steinweg, 1987 The Early Sienese Paintings in Holland H. W. van Os, 1989 Gold Brocade and Renaissance Painting Rembrandt Duits, 2006-12-31 Rembrandt Duits completed his PhD at the University of Utrecht and works at the Photographic Collection of the Warburg Institute where he also teaches Renaissance material culture His thesis Gold Brocade and Renaissance Painting won the Karel van Mander Prijs for the best publication on art between 1500 and 1800 Gold Brocade and Renaissance Painting discusses the representation of Italian Renaissance patterned silks in paintings from Italy and the Southern Netherlands from the 14th to the 16th century It is the first study to approach this subject from the perspective of material culture attempting to answer such questions as why the subject of luxury textiles gained so great a popularity in Renaissance painting how artists catered for an audience that desired to have gold brocades depicted but did not always possess the financial means to own the actual fabrics and what the skills artists developed in this field contributed to the rising social status of the medium of painting The material culture of the grand courts at which real gold brocade played an essential role in the display of wealth and status is compared to that of the socially ambitious but less affluent middle class for whom paintings were often the only affordable substitute for courtly splendour Thus the book also addresses the problem of the distinction between fact and fiction imagination and reality in the account of contemporary social history presented in paintings The Florentine Paintings in Holland 1300-1500 H. W. van Os, Marian Bisanz-Prakken, 1974 Painting in Renaissance Siena, 1420-1500 Keith Christiansen, Laurence B. Kanter, Carl Brandon Strehlke, 1988 Catalog of an exhibition which opened at The Metropolitan Museum of Art on Dec 20 1988 This first comprehensive study in English devoted to Sienese painting to be published in four decades centers on the fifteenth century a fascinating but frequently neglected period when Sienese artists confronted the innovations of Renaissance painting in Florence Two introductory essays survey fifteenth century Sienese painting and individual entries examine 139 key works in exhaustive detail presenting new insights into long debated issues of interpretation and attribution and often utilizing previously unpublished material Most of the major paintings are reproduced in color and supplemented with illustrations of related comparative works
