The Four Of Hearts And Halfway House:

In the Queens' Parlor Ellery Queen, 1969 The Pocket Book of Father Brown Gilbert Keith Chesterton, 1927 The father of paradox The outstanding characteristics of Father Brown are his remarkable abilities first to imagine himself in the place of the criminal and secondly his insight into the human heart gained over a long period of time in the course of his parish work These two qualities make him the most human most lovable and the wisest of all fictional detectives Physically he is small and insignificant man except for a rather large round stomach and small round hat At first people are inclined to overlook him but after five minutes of conversation people recognize that he talks truth The Four of Hearts and ; Halfway House Ellery Queen, 1983 The Publishers' Trade List Annual , 1905 Everything Was Better in America David Welky, 2010-10-01 As a counterpart to research on the 1930s that has focused on liberal and radical writers calling for social revolution David Welky offers this eloquent study of how mainstream print culture shaped and disseminated a message affirming conservative middle class values and assuring its readers that holding to these values would get them through hard times Through analysis of the era's most popular newspaper stories magazines and books Welky examines how voices both outside and within the media debated the purposes of literature and the meaning of cultural literacy in a mass democracy He presents lively discussions of such topics as the newspaper treatment of the Lindbergh kidnapping issues of race in coverage of the 1936 Olympic games domestic dynamics and gender politics in cartoons and magazines Superman's evolution from a radical outsider to a spokesman for the people and the popular consumption of such novels as the Ellery Queen mysteries Gone with the Wind and The Good Earth Through these close readings Welky uncovers the subtle relationship between the messages that mainstream media strategically crafted and those that their target audience wished to hear Rehabilitation Record , 1960 Monthly Bibliography of Medical Reviews , 1977 The Spirituality of the German Awakening August Tholuck, 2003 This volume introduces readers to the faith and work of four figures of the 19th century revival movement called the German Awakening August Tholuck 1799 1871 Johann Hinrich Wichern 1808 1881 Theodor Fliedner 1800 1864 Friedrich von Bodelschwingh 1831 1910 The German Awakening engendered a spirituality that fostered human kindness grounded it in awakened faith and gave it the shape of loving service to society This remarkable and unique scholarly contribution translates the majority of its materials for the first time in English includes a variety of spiritual genres sermons hymns commentaries mission statements etc The Eagle's Heart Hamlin Garland, 1901 The Bookman , 1908
