The Friend in Shanghai Pamela Tan,1992 The Friend ,1854 The Friend of China ,1876 Mediasphere Shanghai Alexander Des Forges,2007-07-31 For many in the west Shanghai is the quintessence of East Asian modernity whether imagined as glamorous and exciting corrupt and impoverishing or a complex synthesis of the good the bad and the ugly How did Shanghai acquire this power How did people across China and around the world decide that Shanghai was the place to be Mediasphere Shanghai shows that partial answers to these questions can be found in the products of Shanghai s media industry particularly the Shanghai novel a distinctive genre of installment fiction that flourished from the 1890s to the 1930s Shanghai fiction supplies not only the imagery that we now consider typical of the city but more significantly the very forms simultaneity interruption mediation and excess through which the city could be experienced as a business and entertainment center and envisioned as the focal point of a mediasphere with a national and transnational reach Existing paradigms of Shanghai culture tend to explain the city s distinctive literary and visual aesthetics as merely the predictable result of economic conditions and social processes but Alexander Des Forges maintains that literary texts and other cultural products themselves constitute a conceptual foundation for the city and construct the frame through which it is perceived Working from a wide range of sources including installment fiction photographs lithographic illustrations maps guidebooks newspapers and film Des Forges demonstrates the significant social effects of aesthetic forms and practices Mediasphere Shanghai offers a new perspective on the cultural history of the city and on the literature and culture of modern China in general Silencing Shanghai Fang Xu,2021-06-24 Silencing Shanghai investigates the paradoxical and counterintuitive contrast between Shanghai s emergence as a global city and the marginalization of its native population captured through the rapid decline of the distinctive Shanghai dialect From this unique vantage point Fang Xu tells a story of power relations in a cosmopolitan metropolis closely monitored and shaped by an authoritarian state through policies affecting urban redevelopment internal migration and language These state policies favor the rich the resourceful and the highly educated while alienate the poorer and less educated Shanghainese geographically and linguistically When the state vigorously promotes Mandarin Chinese through legal and administrative means Shanghainese made the conscious yet reluctant choice of shifting from the dialect to the national language At the same time millions of migrants have little incentive to adopt the vernacular given that their relation to the state has already firmly established their legal financial and social standing in the city The recent shift in the urban linguistic scene that silences the Shanghai dialect is ultimately part of the state led global city building process Through the association of the use of national language with realizing the China Dream the state further eliminates the unique vernacular characters of Shanghai The Friend Samuel Chenery Damon,1922 The Zhangs from Nanxun Nanchen Zhang,Laurence Chang,2010 The Friend, Or, Advocate of Truth ,1858 Clitics, Pronouns and Movement James R. provides a reflection on movement in the light of recent developments in Minimalist theory His discussion of the theories of category versus feature movement in terms of displacement and copying provides the background for 12 papers dealing with clitics pronouns and movement in variety of language families Articles on Romance include papers on the genitive clitic in Andean Spanish proclitic groups and word order in Caribbean Spanish overt pronouns and empty categories in Brazilian Portuguese the clitic en in Catalan and clitic doubling in Romanian Papers on Germanic discuss movement of verbal complements in Dutch and German analyses of English finite auxiliaries in syntax and phonology and complementizers in dialects of German in a reiterative syntax analysis Other articles deal with object shift in Serbo Croatian operator bound clitics in Niuean a serial verb analysis of the ba construction in Mandarin Chinese and experiencer verbs in Japanese
