for dragging him unceremoniously into the middle of a grand primeval forest and presenting to his view the curious and stirring spectacle of two white men and a negro running at their utmost possible speed with flashing eyes and labouring chests evidently running for their lives Though very different in aspect and condition those men were pretty equally matched as runners for there was no apparent difference in the vigour with which they maintained the pace The track or footpath along which they ran was so narrow as to compel them to advance in single file He who led was a tall agile youth of nineteen or thereabouts in knickerbocker shooting garb with short curly black hair pleasantly expressive features and sinewy frame The second was obviously a true blue tar a regular sea dog about thirty years of age of Samsonian mould and albeit running for very life with grand indignation gleaming in his eyes He wore a blue shirt on his broad back white ducks on his active legs and a straw hat on his head besides a mass of shaggy hair which apparently not finding enough of room on his cranium overflowed in two brown cataracts down his cheeks and terminated in a voluminous beard The third fugitive was also a young man and a negro short thickset square tough as india rubber and black as the Emperor of Zahara Good humour wrinkled the corners of his eyes the milk of human kindness played on his thick lips and rippled his sable brow and intense sincerity like a sunbeam suffused his entire visage James Ginger for that was his name though his friends preferred to call him Ebony scorned a hat of any kind his simple costume consisting merely of two garments canvas trousers and a guernsey shirt The sailor wore a cutlass in his belt
