The Future Of Shopping Macmillan Business:

The Future of Shopping Julian E. Markham, 2016-07-27 In many countries shopping has been transformed from High Street stores to large out of town Retail Parks and Shopping Centres Technology now provides the opportunity for many products and services to be promoted and purchased electronically particularly via the Internet This will progress differently for different products regions consumer groups etc This book presents future scenarios for the retail industry in the light of Internet shopping Through its unique perspective it examines developments so far and through the insight of the author who is one of the leading professionals in shopping centre developments takes an inspired look at the future of retailing in the next century Batteries Included! Nigel Barlow, 2012-04-24 The last two decades have seen the rise and rise of the service economy where image and customer perceptions are crucially important in building a successful business Rarely do we buy a hard tangible object called a product Financial services sell peace of mind car manufacturers sell a self image and an aspirational lifestyle computer and software companies offer solutions even food is fashion Nigel Barlow draws on two decades of experience in 20 countries to argue that the age of service has failed to deliver on its promises He goes far beyond the standard business speak cliches of customer service to show why merely satisfying customers is not enough He explores with original examples and first hand experiences why service so often falls short of customer expectations and shows how to think and act to create legendary service in the reader's own organization
