Love Poems and Musings from an 86 Year Old Widower Lester Greenman,2013-08-27 This book is written by an eighty six yer old recent widower The poems and Musings are here to show that age doe not diminish love and romance Romance Romance the greatest mental Gift to mankind Yes I said it What more wonderful than the Overwhelming feeling of love To be able to be near And to Smell the scent to caress the tresses to gently hold a hand This is rapture at its acme When there are times that I Am Alone without you the seconds Go painfully slow To espy you Again is as if the heavens have Brought forth the shining sun The flowers bloom in all their Radiance and aromas To be in love is all This is a reality made In heaven L D G

Non-Elegiac Latin Love Poetry of Late Antiquity Vasileios Pappas,2025-05-19 For about five hundred years between Ovid s death 17 AD and Maximianus Elegies 6th century AD the genre of love elegy disappears Does this mean that love poetry in general was no longer being written This was certainly not the case Poets continued to compose love poetry merely in other forms than elegy This book deals with non elegiac Latin love poetry of Late Antiquity It is the first monograph to focus on the metaliterary interpretation of four non elegiac poetic works the Pervigilium Veneris Ausonius Bissula Reposianus De concubitu Martis et Veneris and the Aegritudo Perdicae The book contains all the required information about these poems including their date authorship structure and literary tradition However its content is predominantly original as it examines subjects that have not previously been discussed in the past These include a the generic interaction between the poems host genre and several guest genres that are present within them b the metaliterary discourse developed in several passages which reveals the metapoetic self consciousness of their poets c their hidden demands for the innovation of love poetry and d their allusive comments on the conservatism of this era
