The Garden of the Beloved Robert E. Way,1974 The Garden of the Beloved Robert Way,1975-01-01 Garden of the Beloved R. Way,1988-12-01 The Garden of the Beloved Robert E. Way,Robert D. Whitaker,1974 The Garden Gate Charles Butler,2025-07-22 Reprint of the original first published in 1874 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Revelation of Saint Iohn, Illustrated with Analysis and Scolions ... Together with a Most Comfortable Exposition of the Last and Most Difficult Part of the Prophecy of Daniel ... Thomas Brightman,1644 The Garden of Loneliness Jai Shankar Prasad,Charles S. J. White,2006-01-01 In the Garden of Loneliness presents the reader with a translation into English of one of the masterpiece of modern Hindi Literature This masterpiece is Jayshankar Prasad s Ansu The imagery throughout this long poem 190 stanzas is of a desperate love felt by the poet for a sweetheart who has somehow left him or deserted him The setting is in a beautiful garden made desolate by the absence of thte beloved As the introductin indicates the desperation of separation Viraha can be mythologized into a universal longing of the soul for God or of the modern person s quest for contact with the Spirit beyond the existential loneliness of the materialism of the contemporary world view Translating the Garden Mohammad R. Ghanoonparvar,2001 In Translating the Garden Ghanoonparvar offers readers an over the shoulder view of himself in the actual process of translating Shahrokh Meskub s Goftogu dar Bagh Dialogue in the Garden from Persian into English This short philosophical work uses a conversation between a writer and a painter to delve into the Persian psyche and explore Persian perceptions of art literature nature identity spirituality and the world in general As he translates the text Ghanoonparvar illustrates and discusses the myriad decisions that a literary translator faces from word choices to the problems of conveying cultural concepts and deciphering authorial intent He also compares some of his translated passages with those of other translators to highlight the uniqueness of each act of translation The complete English translation of Dialogue in the Garden rounds out the volume BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days André Villeneuve,2021-10-12 In Divine Marriage from Eden to the End of Days Andre Villeneuve explores the mystery of God s love in the Bible and ancient Jewish tradition Scripture portrays the covenant between God and his people as a divine human marriage spanning through all of human history For the ancient Jewish interpreters God married humanity at the dawn of creation in the Garden of Eden but the union was broken by human sin The Lord restored the relationship when he betrothed Israel at Mount Sinai yet the covenant was wounded again with the transgression of the golden calf The nuptial bond was healed anew commemorated and reenacted through liturgical worship in Israel s tabernacle and temple This worship in God s nuptial chamber in turn anticipated the ultimate fulfillment of the divine human marriage in the messianic age at the end of history The first part of the book explores the marriage through Israel's biblical history in light of ancient Jewish exegesis. The second part unveils the marriage in the ancient interpretation of the Song of Songs and in wisdom literature. The third part reveals how the same symbolism is taken up in the New Testament and applied to the marriage between Christ and the Church. In the Garden there was a New Tomb Paul Creevey, 2024-11-18 Paul Creevey considers the central question: Can one simply assume that the story of the burial, empty tomb, and appearance narratives in John's Gospel are a literary unity? There are many issues in coherence and cohesion that have led to a wide number of interpretations given to many different aspects of the text, that is, John 19:37-20:29. It is also widely recognized that John's retelling of these events is distinctive. Creevey analyses the text of John 19:37-20:29, showing that the Johannine Evangelist has created a two-part tripartite defense of two central aspects of Christian faith: the case for the empty tomb and the case for the appearance narratives. Using internal literary evidence as well as external evidence from the earliest extant manuscripts, he argues that this text has been created to show that the testimony and witness of those first disciples is true and is the basis of any future Christian belief. This work addresses all the issues in the apparent lack of cohesion and coherence in the text to show that each part of the text is connected to an overall defense of belief in these two central aspects of faith. Finally, what is at the heart of these two events is the need to accept that it is the relationship that one has to Jesus and the Father that is central to acceptance of this narrative as an inspired narrative that offers hope for all people.
