HENRY KISSINGER AND THE AMERICAN CENTURY Jeremi Suri,2009-05-01 What made Henry Kissinger the kind of diplomat he was What experiences and influences shaped his worldview and provided the framework for his approach to international relations Suri offers a thought provoking interpretive study of one of the most influential and controversial political figures of the twentieth century John U. Monro

Toni-Lee Capossela,2012-12-17 In 1967 John U Monro dean of the college at Harvard left his twenty year administrative career at that prestigious university for a teaching position at Miles College an unaccredited historically black college on the outskirts of Birmingham Alabama This unconventional move was a natural continuation of Monro's life long commitment to equal opportunity in education A champion of the underprivileged Monro embodied both the virtues of the Greatest Generation and the idealism of the civil rights era His teaching career spanned more than four decades and as biographer Toni Lee Capossela demonstrates his influence reached well beyond his lifetime In addition to being a talented administrator Monro was a World War II veteran a crusading journalist a civil rights proponent and a spokesman for the fledgling Peace Corps His dedication to social justice outlasted the fervor of the 1960s and fueled bold initiatives in higher education While at Harvard he developed a financial aid formula that became the national template for needs based scholarships and earned him the title The Father of Modern Financial Aid During his decade at Miles College he spearheaded a satellite freshman program in the economically depressed Greene County then went on to help design a literacy program a senior research requirement and a writing across the curriculum program at Tougaloo College When hearing and memory loss drove him from the classroom he moved his base of operations to Tougaloo's Writing Center working with students in a collaborative relationship that suited his personality and teaching style Only in 1996 after struggling with the symptoms of Alzheimer's for several years did he retire with great reluctance John U Monro Uncommon Educator is a tribute to this passionate teacher and an affirmation of how one person can inspire many to initiate positive and lasting change Biochemistry Collections, a

How Student Journalists Report Campus Unrest Kaylene Dial Armstrong,2017-11-22 Journalists are trained to tell the stories of others and leave themselves out of their writing Student journalists are no different They spend their days on their college newspaper writing about what happens to others especially when what is happening involves protests sit ins riots hunger strikes and other unrest on the very campuses where they also attend school Now some of these former student reporters and editors tell their own stories of some of the challenges all student journalists face in reporting events that most administrators would rather see not covered at all For some this is the first time the stories of what happened in the newsrooms and behind the scenes will appear in print Some of the issues they discuss include censorship the role of the newspaper as the conscience of the community objective and activist journalism and the challenges of reporting crises The protests covered here represent the many concerns college student protesters have tackled through the decades integration in 1962 the free speech movement of 1964 racial issues and the Vietnam War in 1968 and 1970 and continuing racial issues in the present Many of these former student journalists look back decades to their work in the 1960s Some discuss a more recent protest Looking back they admit they might have done things differently if they had to do it again yet all are fiercely proud of the work they did in recording the first version of history National Union Catalog, 1981 ,1982 Blue Pencils & Hidden Hands Sharon M.
