Balme, 2020 Explores the fascinating career of Maurice E Bandmann and his global theatrical circuit in the early twentieth century Historic Cities and Sacred Sites Ismail Serageldin, Ephim Shluger, Joan Martin-Brown, 2001-01-01 This book contributes to a better understanding of why historic cities and sacred sites are important and how cultural roots may influence and improve urban futures It emphasises the need to include social and cultural dimensions in economic development and offers cases of best practice The British Empire through buildings John M. MacKenzie, 2020-03-09 Imperialism is strikingly represented in its buildings This work illuminates the dispersal of colonial culture and religious forms social classes and racial divisions over two centuries from the establishment of colonial rule to a post colonial world It will be a vital reading for all students of imperial history and global material culture Revitalization in Asia Lavina Ahuja, Lynne D. DiStefano, 2025-03-05 Revitalization in Asia Adaptive Reuse in Macao Mumbai and Penang offers a clear understanding of the value of sustainable adaptive reuse within an Asian context Three highly urbanized places Macao Mumbai and Penang are considered in detail from conservation and planning perspectives with essays and timelines for each For each place five case studies offer a comparative framework for understanding similarities and differences in adaptive reuse projects Six essays examine adaptive reuse in terms of its connection to the three dimensions of sustainability with reference to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals This book is envisioned as a continuation of Asian Revitalization Adaptive Reuse in Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Richard A Engelhardt UNESCO Following the acclaimed Asian Revitalization and using a similar format this latest book looks at three more Asian cities The benefits of adaptive reuse as an economic driver are discussed as are the vagaries of tourism It is an essential reference for practitioners and decision makers in government and private enterprise It is also a very good read Brian Anderson The Chinese University of Hong Kong Revitalization in Asia is a highly informative and well documented volume that significantly extends our understanding of adaptive reuse across Asia It focuses on real life issues case studies and challenges faced when adopting a sustainability mindset in conservation practice A must read not just for researchers and practitioners in the field but also for those curious about this increasingly popular approach to conservation Miles Glendinning University of Edinburgh Adaptive reuse is a familiar term but this volume has teased out its nuances through thematic essays and case studies from three Asian cities Curated carefully to relate theory with practice and to provoke further thinking it is a recommended publication for students and practitioners alike Neel Kamal Chapagain Ahmedabad University Art Deco Michael Windover,2012 No detailed description available for Art Deco The Secret History of Mumbai Terror Attacks Saroj Kumar Rath,2018-07-11 Critical questions remain unanswered on the events of the cold blooded and devastating terror attacks in Mumbai on 26 November 2008 Investigative and introspective this book offers a lucid and graphic account of the ill fated day and traces the changing dynamics of terror in South Asia Using new insights it explores South Asia s regional dynamics of antagonism the ever present challenge to the frontiers of India Pakistan and the terrorism question the strife in Afghanistan and the self serving selective US war on terror Including a new Afterword this second edition will greatly interest those in defence security and strategic studies politics and international relations peace and conflict studies media and journalism and South Asian studies as well as the general reader Urban Heritage and Sustainability in the Age of Globalisation Lilia Makhoulfi,2024-09-26 This book offers a deep exploration of architectural and urban heritage using interdisciplinary and intercultural approaches to assess how historical social economic and political factors have impacted heritage development and its sustainability It sheds light on the stakes of heritage conservation management and maintenance in today s globalised world Through detailed studies of historic cities the book explores both the tangible aspects of their built heritage urban fabric housing design construction methods and materials for thermal comfort and the intangible components of local communities including identities cultures religions values and ways of life in diverse case studies in Egypt France India Iran Jordan Morocco Syria and Tunisia By addressing not only urban and architectural heritage but also socio cultural environmental and political issues including economic challenges and climatic concerns this book is an essential resource for scholars and researchers across fields including architecture civil engineering urban planning sociology and philosophical anthropology Rising From the Ashes of Bengal's Partition Jiban Mukhopadhyay,2019-08-30 Usually books on partition are sob stories but not this one Rising from the Ashes of Bengal's Partition is an untold story of the journey of a child born around the time of partition who battled many hurdles and aspired to lead a new life like a Phoenix. This is a story of his and his generation's unflinching determination to move ahead. This is the story of the real people who did not curse their fate and sit idle shedding tears. It covers a child's and his generations torturous journey from refugee camps and colonies to the world above the sky. The story covers a span of seven decades of time and space, people and events, politics and economics, corporates and their leaders, and above all, the kaleidoscopic panorama across the journey through Bengal and India. The book opens up several untraveled terrains, personal experiences, a person's struggle, sufferings, tears, joys, and smiles. It documents people's perception about critical contemporary events which conventional history does not cover. The author writes from the ringside, for example, on how it was to work for the most reputed corporate of the country and what happened in the business and economy when the Tiger was Uncaged. Sure, readers would like to run through the author's experiences. The author has poured his heart and soul out into writing this story.

It has provided a professional platform to refresh and enrich the knowledge base and explore the latest innovations. It also provides a platform to the students of architecture to present their research to academicians and professionals as well as receive valuable feedback from them.

Women Architects in India Mary N. Woods, 2016-10-04

As the first inclusive study of how women have shaped the modern Indian built environment from the independence struggle until today, this book reveals a history that is largely unknown, not only in the West but also in India. Educated in the 1930s and 1940s, the very first women architects designed everything from factories to museums in the post-independence period. The generations that followed are now responsible for metro systems, shopping malls, corporate headquarters, and IT campuses for a global India. But they also design schools, cultural centers, religious pilgrimages, hotels, and wildlife sanctuaries. Pioneers in conserving historic buildings, these women also sustain and resurrect traditional crafts and materials, empower rural and marginalized communities, and create ecologically sustainable architectures for India. Today, although women make up a majority in India's ever-increasing schools of architecture, it is still not easy for them, like their Western sisters, to find their place in the profession. Recounting the work and lives of Indian women as not only architects but also builders and clients opens a new window onto the complexities of feminism modernism and design practice in India and beyond Set in the design centers of Mumbai and Delhi this book is also one of the first histories of architectural education and practice in two very different cities that are now global centers The diversity of practices represented here helps us to imagine other ways to create and build apart from starchitecture And how these women negotiate tradition and modernity at work and at home is crucial for understanding gender and modern architecture in a more global and less Eurocentric context In a country where female emancipation was important for narratives of the independence movement and the new nation state feminism was nonetheless eschewed as divisive and damaging to the nationalist cause Class caste tradition and family restricted but also created opportunities for the very first women architects in India just as they do now for the growing number of young women professionals today

Henry Irwin and the Indo Saracenic Movement Reconsidered Pradip Kumar Das, 2014-07-23 The book focuses on Henry Irwin a man who began his life in India as a PWD engineer and subsequently rose to the position of consulting architect to the government of Madras succeeding Robert

Fellowes Chisholm his predecessor in that office Many of Irwin s creations continue to dominate the Madras skyline and are held in high esteem by local denizens However the blatant hybridity of some of these monuments coupled with the fact that they failed to reflect the attempt to legitimize colonial rule also accounted for their transience as an architectural movement Parallels drawn with the colonial architecture of Calcutta and Bombay not to speak of the impact of Indo Saracenic architecture on some of India s princely states draw attention to the movement Likewise its authenticity has been questioned against the backdrop of the architectural legacy of the home country during the same period
